Grolier 2000 A Further Grolier Club Biographical Retrospective:

Grolier 2000 Grolier Club, Jerry Kelly, 2000 Lives in books over one hundred short biographies of notable collectors and book scholars The Cambridge Companion to Medieval British Manuscripts Orietta Da Rold, Elaine Treharne, 2020-12-17 Explains the methods and knowledge required to understand how why and for whom manuscripts were made in medieval Britain The Hroswitha Club and the Impact of Women Book Collectors Kate Ozment, 2023-05-11 The Hroswitha Club was a group of women book collectors who met from 1944 2004 in the Eastern United States Despite the fame of individual members like Henrietta Bartlett or Mary Hyde Eccles there is no sustained study of the Club's work and legacy This Element makes this history broadly accessible and focuses on how members shared knowledge and expertise and provided a space for legitimacy and self growth in a period where women's access to formal education and academic institutions was limited By making this network visible through an examination of archival records library catalogs and pamphlets this project positions the Club as a case study for a more thorough examination of the ways that intersectional identities can make visible or obscure whose intellect money and resources have shaped the study of rare books in the United States International Dictionary of Library Histories David H. Stam, 2001-11 Following the format of Fitzroy Dearborn's highly successful International Dictionary of Historic Places and International Dictionary of University Histories the International Dictionary of Library Histories provides basic information for each institution location and holdings followed by an extensive 1 000 5 000 word essay on its history as well as a Further Reading list In addition the dictionary includes introductory articles on the history of various types of libraries and a library history in various regions of the world The dictionary profiles more than 200 institutions from around the world including the world's most important research libraries and other libraries with globally or regionally notable collections innovative traditions and significant and interesting histories The essays take advantage of the growing scholarship of library history to provide insightful overviews of each institution including not only the traditional values of these libraries but their innovations as well such as developments in automated systems and electronic delivery The profiles will emphasize the unique materials of research in these institutions archives manuscripts personal and institutional papers The introductory articles on types of libraries include topics ranging from theological libraries to prison libraries from the ancient to the digital An international team of more than 200 leading scholars in the field have contributed essays to the project The Making of Princeton University James Axtell, 2021-03-09 In 1902 Professor Woodrow Wilson took the helm of Princeton University then a small denominational college with few academic pretensions But Wilson had a blueprint for remaking the too cozy college into an intellectual powerhouse The Making of Princeton University tells for the first time the story of how the University adapted and updated Wilson's vision to transform itself into the prestigious institution it is today James Axtell brings the methods and insights from his extensive work in ethnohistory to the collegiate realm focusing especially on one of Princeton's most distinguished features its unrivaled reputation for undergraduate education Addressing admissions the curriculum extracurricular activities and the changing landscape of student culture the book devotes four full chapters to undergraduate life inside and outside the classroom The book is a livelywarts and all rendering of Princeton s rise addressing such themes as discriminatory admission policies the academic underperformance of many varsity athletes and the controversial bicker system through which students have been selected for the University s private eating clubs Written in a delightful and elegant style The Making of Princeton University offers a detailed picture of how the University has dealt with these issues to secure a distinguished position in both higher education and American society For anyone interested in or associated with Princeton past or present this is a book to savor

Proceedings and Papers - Bibliographical Society of America Bibliographical Society of America,2001 Beyond Blue and White Genevieve Wheeler-Brown,2025-08-05 An engaging work of cultural history that reveals the stories behind one of the world s most coveted and beloved ceramic When over seventy five pieces of rare and intriguing 17th and 18th century Delftware are rediscovered in an historic Manhattan townhouse decorative art advisor and writer Genevieve Wheeler Brown quickly recognizes that together these pieces tell an amazing story What begins as a curatorial exercise quickly evolves not only into an exploration of this colorful expressive and sometimes even humorous decorative art coveted for hundreds of years but also an unexpected uncovering of forceful female lives yet untold Connecting the accounts of women across centuries Beyond Blue and White allows us to craft a more complete picture of female experience through the lens of material culture We meet female Delftware makers including Barbara Rotteveel founder of The Three Bells Delftware factory in 1671 We are introduced to female Delftware patrons such as Queen Mary II who found her means of expression while creating a vogue in the 17th century for Delft blue and white across royal courts And then there are the female collectors beginning in the 19th century who saw the artistry and craft in these ceramics others had overlooked Foremost among them was Mrs J Pierpont Morgan and Mrs Cornelius Vanderbilt II who came together with fellow New York women and laid the groundwork for women in the museum world while preserving decorative arts with an educational mission With illustrations of period objects documents maps paintings prints and drawings Beyond Blue and White is a colorful celebration of an iconic decorative art and dynamic women living in extraordinary times Wheeler Brown s rich narrative encourages us to see beyond the dazzling cobalt glaze of Delftware to consider that these vessels are also our connection to a history with a fascinating group of women at its center
