The Figurative Sculpture of Magdalena Abakanowicz Joanna Inglot, 2004-03-30 Publisher Description Theatre and the World Rustom Bharucha,2003-09-02 In this passionate and controversial work director and critic Rustom Bharucha presents the first major critique of intercultural theatre from a Third World perspective Bharucha questions the assumptions underlying the theatrical visions of some of the twentieth century s most prominent theatre practitioners and theorists including Antonin Artaud Jerzsy Grotowski and Peter Brook He contends that Indian theatre has been grossly mythologised and taken out of context by Western directors and critics And he presents a detailed dramaturgical analysis of what he describes as an intracultural theatre project providing an alternative vision of the possibilities of true cultural pluralism Theatre and the World bravely challenges much of today s multicultural theatre movement It will be vital reading for anyone interested in the creation or discussion of a truly non Eurocentric world theatre History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope,John Neubauer,2007-07-18 The third volume in the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe focuses on the making and remaking of those institutional structures that engender and regulate the creation distribution and reception of literature The focus here is not so much on shared institutions but rather on such region wide analogous institutional processes as the national awakening the modernist opening and the communist regimentation the canonization of texts and censorship of literature These processes which took place in all of the region s cultures were often asynchronous and subjected to different local conditions The volume s premise is that the national awakening and institutionalization of literature were symbiotically interrelated in East Central Europe Each national awakening involves a language renewal an introduction of the vernacular and its literature in schools and universities the creation of an infrastructure for the publication of books and journals clashes with censorship the founding of national academies libraries and theaters a re construction of national folklore and the writing of histories of the vernacular literature The four parts of this volume are titled 1 Publishing and Censorship 2 Theater as a Literary Institution 3 Forging Primal Pasts The Uses of Folk Poetry and 4 Literary Histories Itineraries of National Self images The Post-traumatic Theatre of Grotowski and Kantor Magda Romanska,2014-10-01 Despite its international influence Polish theatre remains a mystery to many Westerners This volume attempts to fill in current gaps in English language scholarship by offering a historical and critical analysis of two of the most influential works of Polish theatre Jerzy Grotowski s Akropolis and Tadeusz Kantor s Dead Class By examining each director s representation of Auschwitz this study provides a new understanding of how translating national trauma through the prism of performance can alter and deflect the meaning and reception of theatrical works both inside and outside of their cultural and historical contexts Alternative Ways of Life in Contemporary Europe Andrzej Siciński,Monica Wemegah,1983 references throughout part of the Goals processes and indicators of development project Le Théâtre en Pologne ,2004 Family Constellations Damian Janus,2022-02-16 Based on the knowledge derived from family constellations a therapeutic method developed by Bert Hellinger Janus investigates other psychotherapeutic approaches and introduces a new perspective on human behavior Janus addresses debated issues like nature versus nurture the role of unconscious factors in shaping behavior and the structure of the conscience arguing that family constellations offer new understandings for the fields of psychotherapy psychology anthropology and religious studies Shakespeare In The New Europe Boika Sokolova,Derek Roper,Michael Hattaway,2015-12-17 Shakespeare is the national poet of many nations besides his own though a peculiarly subversive one in both east and west This volume contains a score of essays by scholars from Britain Bulgaria Croatia Germany Poland Romania Spain Ukraine and the USA written to show how the momentous changes of 1989 were mirrored in the way Shakespeare has been interpreted and produced The collection offers a valuable record of what Shakespeare has meant in the modern world and some pointers to what he may mean in the future
