Why We Need the Church to Become More Like Jesus Joseph H. Hellerman, 2017-11-09 Many of us long to experience the fullness of God and his purpose for our lives Not a whole lot of us ever do The reason is that we have departed in some significant ways from the biblical view of Christian life and growth The New Testament highlights the communal missional and eschatological aspects of our walk with God We grow in our faith as individual Christians to the degree that we are a deeply rooted relationally in a local church community that is passionately playing its part in God's grand story of Creation Fall Redemption and Restoration and contently anticipating the summing of all things in Christ when Jesus returns In recent decades American evangelicals have traded away community outreach and the Bible's teaching about eternity future for the pursuit of individual religious experience in the here and now Why We Need the Church to Become More Like Jesus traces this departure from biblical Christianity through recent decades of popular evangelical trends and reminds us that faith centered on community mission and the story line of Scripture remains the key to the spiritual formation of the individual Christian

Like Jesus Mick Nelson,2013-04-28 Spirituality is finding a center at the core of your being that connects organizes and defines every aspect of your life For a Christ follower that center is knowing Jesus Christian spirituality is intensely relational When asked to explain spirituality in a nutshell Jesus said Love the Lord your God with all your heart with all your soul with all your mind and all your strength And then he said Love your neighbor as yourself For a Christ follower spirituality is about loving God and loving others Spiritual growth is about becoming mature in all of its dimensions The Bible encourages us to become mature in Christ The Scriptures define maturity as growing into the fullness of the measure of the stature of Christ Becoming more like Christ is the fruit of a growing spirituality Conversion is the initial step in the spiritual journey but Christlikeness is the goal Francis Chan in his book Multiply writes It s impossible to be a disciple or a follower of someone and not end up like that person Jesus said A disciple is not above his teacher but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher Luke 6 40 That s the whole point of being a disciple of Jesus we imitate Him carry on His ministry and become more like Him in the process The Great Commission calls the church collectively and each follower of Christ personally to make disciples of all nations A disciple is literally a learner a follower an apprentice of Jesus Christ But what should a mature disciple look like Bill Hull in The Complete Book of Discipleship describes being a disciple as becoming like Jesus Christ in His Convictions Believing what Christ Believed His Character

Living Like Christ Lived His Spirituality Training like Christ Trained His Relationships Loving like Christ Loved His Service Ministering like Christ Ministered His Purpose Leading like Christ Led mission This collection of essays seeks to reflect on what it will take to making disciples at the local church level Hull s characteristics provide a conceptual grid for thinking through the implications of following through on Christ s command Chuck Coats begins by unpacking Jesus reliance on the Scriptures as the foundation for what he believed and taught The Sermon on the Mount inspires Michael Wilkinson s discussion of what it means to live like Christ lived Rob Bedard explores Jesus approach to discipleship as illustrated in his training relationship with Peter Jeff Beck then discusses how the Father s love for Jesus serves as a paradigm for his life of love and for ours Mick Nelson reflects on what ministry modeled on Christ s example means for serving others in our current contexts In the final essay Nelson also discusses the implications of Jesus leadership style of submission sacrifice and service for our own spiritual leadership It is the desire of the contributors that these essays will serve as a catalyst for thinking through what it means to make disciples through local church and that it will help pastors and congregations
