My Body

There are lots of ways our bodies are similar to and different from people around us. Some of these similarities are body parts that we may all have. These may include heads, wrists, necks, hands, arms and legs. The genitals are an example of ways male and female bodies are different. Female bodies have genitals called a vulva and a vagina, and male bodies have genitals called a penis and testicles.

These are the bodies of two children. They are not the bodies of any real children. They are just the bodies of two children. They are not the bodies of any real children. They are just the bodies of two children.

Key Vocabulary

genitals

Parts of our body that are private. Females have genitals called a vulva and a vagina, and males have genitals called a penis and testicles.

private parts

Parts of our body that are just for us.

similar

Instructions we need to follow to stay safe.

stereotypes

Thinking someone knows something about someone else based on the way they look, the way they speak, where they come from or their gender.

unique

Something that is special and unlike anything else.

change

When something becomes different.

Each of these changes may be uncomfortable. Talking to family, talking to allowing ourselves to get like some things that were, we may have more a change and our bodies ask about what we might if we know something is the next class, there are this. This way, we will change.
