Families swinging on the front porch after a hard day's work. It's all part of the country way of life. Here legendary country music singer Charlie Daniels introduces and edits a collection of heartfelt essays from an all-star cast of contributors on what it means to grow up country. United by a love of music, these notables show us that country means more than just the twang of a guitar. They share a belief in hard work, integrity, strength of character, and having the courage not to quit. The stories here tell of rustic upbringings and rich spirits of parents who believed in tough love and old-fashioned common sense and of a strong sense of community, pride in your country, and a love of the natural world. You'll get an intimate glimpse into the lives of Country music royalty and all-time greats such as Dolly Parton, Barbara Mandrell, Brenda Lee, Dobie Gray, and Lee Greenwood. Southern rock gods such as Gary Rossington and Donnie Van Zant. The newest crop of stars such as Sara Evans, Toby Keith, and Clint Black. Special guests such as former president Jimmy Carter and seven-time all-around rodeo champion Ty Murray. These snapshots show how living country has allowed our favorite singers, songwriters, and stage performers to make a career out of doing what they love while never forgetting that when you've grown up country, home isn't just a place where you live; it's a state of the heart.

A Warrior's Heart Tim Mehl, 2017-02-12 A Warrior's Heart is the spiritual autobiography of Tim G. Mehl. In it, he shares about his struggles with ADD/ADHD as a child in a time when schools and parents did not know how to handle a child with these issues. This, along with a difficult home life, created feelings of self-worthlessness and a low self-esteem that led him toward the hippie movement of the 60s. His story takes you through those hippie years along with the beginning of drug use and eventually dropping out of high school to enlist in the United States Navy. He goes into great detail of the verbal abuse he sustained by his father as well as the serious respiratory illness of his mother who passed away just five days before his fifteen birthday. When suicide seemed to be the only answer for his pain and hurt, he found the love of God on the very day that he decided to kill himself. He shares the incredible things that the Lord did in him for him and through him, which eventually led him to become a peace officer with almost a thirty-year law enforcement career. He shares stories of God's protection even when he wasn't walking his Christian witness. Near-death experiences and how God protected him and kept him safe on the streets throughout his career as well as during his 10-year assignment working undercover. Tim also shares his healing from the wounds and scars left by his feelings of failure, rejection, and worthlessness that penetrated deep into his heart. By learning to forgive and receive forgiveness, Tim takes you through his discovery of understanding and knowing God as his heavenly Father who has never rejected him or thought of him as a failure or worthless. Becoming an ordained minister in 2004, God is using Tim and his wife Myrth in various areas of ministry within their church. I have no doubt whatsoever that there are young people out there who are going through some of the exact things that I went through. If this book about my testimony can reach just one person for Jesus Christ, then everything that I ever went through was worth it. I'd do it all over again if just one person comes to know Jesus as Lord and Savior.
