marry young live a devout life and raise children within the Adass community's religious rules. This righteous path would keep her safe from the immodest secular world just a few blocks away in suburban Melbourne. But the Adass community was not safe for Dassi. She was fifteen when her revered school principal Malka Leifer started to single her out. Dassi's cloistered and harsh upbringing meant she didn't have the words for what was happening to her but she knew it was very, very wrong. It would take her years to break free of the secrecy which pervaded the community and tell the police of her betrayal. And only then would she find out others including two of her sisters had also been abused and would learn some in the Adass community had helped Leifer flee to Israel. With the only world she knew crumbling around her, Dassi found the strength to fight, leading a brave fifteen-year campaign to bring Leifer back to face Australian courts. This is Dassi's story. I am a sexual abuse survivor but I am also more than a survivor. I will continue fighting for justice for all victims. What a story. Heart wrenching. What is remarkable about Dassi Erlich and her sisters is that somewhere they found the courage to confront what was going on in their own lives and in other lives. SYDNEY MORNING HERALD. Raw and revealing. Beautifully written and eloquently sheds light on the dark times Dassi experienced, breaking down stigmas by openly discussing abuse and mental health. AUSTRALIAN JEWISH NEWS. Erlich has an exceptional voice, an openness and authority. Reading her life is an education. I read with fury, horror and shame. But admiration for the writer outshone everything. THE AGE. Motherland Rita Goldberg, 2013-05-07. A groundbreaking second-generation memoir of the Holocaust and its legacy by Otto Frank's goddaughter. The extraordinary tale is heroic. The New York Times. Rita Goldberg recounts the extraordinary story of her mother Hilde Jacobsthal, a close friend of Anne Frank's family who was fifteen when the Nazis invaded Holland. After the arrest of her parents in 1943, Hilde fled to Belgium, living out the war years in an extraordinary set of circumstances: first among the Resistance and then at Bergen-Belsen after its liberation. In the words of The Guardian, the story is worthy of a film script. As astonishing as Hilde's story is, Rita herself emerges as the central character in this utterly unique memoir. Proud of her mother and yet struggling to forge an identity in the shadow of such heroic accomplishments, not to mention her family's close relationship to the iconic Frank family, Goldberg offers an unflinching look at the struggles faced by children and grandchildren whose own lives are haunted by historic tragedy. Motherland is the culmination of a lifetime of reflection and a decade of research. It is an epic story of survival, adventure and new life. A double memoir that braids her parents' story with her own and succeeds in articulating a difficult truth. The Economist. CCAR Journal: The Reform Jewish Quarterly, Summer 2023 Edwin Goldberg, 2023-07-14. This issue of the CCAR Journal is dedicated to honoring the seventy-fifth anniversary of Israel. Articles discuss what it means to be Jewish in the Jewish State, the presence of the Reform Movement in Israel and the relationship that exists between Diaspora Jews and Zionism, among other topics. Book reviews and poems are also included. IP Profiles, 2008. Farmer's Advocate and Home Journal, 1906. Jewish Mothers, 2000-04. Photographer Lloyd Wolf and interviewer Paula E.
