Mirror of Refining Insight M. A. Grayson, 2022-07-01 For those not satisfied with who they are or know they can do better When we look in the mirror we see a reflection If we don't like what we see we can either make cosmetic changes or through surgery get alterations implemented Unfortunately we can't do that if we've developed bad habits or traits and often some of our bad habits we don't even know about until someone exposes them Even your best friend may not tell you about some of them The observations via poems are to help expose some of those habits traits and character flaws like nobody taught you to have a filter on the things you say We can't say everything that comes to mind or a slap upside the head might be in our near future Or when we talk we may make gestures or faces that give away the truth when you tell a lady she's not really fat or a coworker that they're smart Poems make you question who am I and do I act like that when you know you don't want to be disrespectful Another means to improve your self-worth and character while distancing yourself from the negative characteristic flaws and undesirable habits The Generous Rivals, Or, Love Triumphant.
