Alternative Development Strategies for the Post-2015 Era Jose Antonio Alonso, Giovanni Andrea Cornia, Rob

Vos, 2014-05-01 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on bloomsburycollections.com The global economic crisis of 2008 2009 exposed systemic failings at the core of economic policy making worldwide The crisis came on top of several other crises including skyrocketing and highly volatile world food and energy prices and climate change This book argues that new policy approaches are needed to address such devastating global development challenges and to avoid the potentially catastrophic consequences to livelihoods worldwide that would result from present approaches The contributors to the book are independent development experts brought together by the UN to identify a development strategy capable of promoting a broad based economic recovery and at the same time guaranteeing social equity and environmental sustainability both within countries and internationally This new development approach seeks to promote the reforms needed to improve global governance providing a more equitable distribution of global public goods The contributors offer a critical evaluation of past development experiences and report on their creative search for new and well thought out answers for the future They suggest that economic progress fairer societies and environmental sustainability can be compatible objectives but only when pursued simultaneously by all China's

Employment Challenges and Strategies After the WTO Accession Douglas Zhihua Zeng, 2005 Although China has made impressive progress in economic development and improving social well being it is facing many daunting challenges while transforming toward a knowledge and service based economy and further opening up to international competition after its WTO accession in the context of knowledge revolution One of the biggest challenges is how to create 100 300 million new jobs in the coming decade to absorb the millions of laid offs rural emigrants and newly added labor force China has been successful in building high technology parks and information and communications technology ICT industries but they are limited in terms of employment generation while most of the traditional labor intensive industries are losing competitiveness due to low productivity To combat the unprecedented employment challenge China must implement a systemic and sustained strategy Cover verso

Conserving Biodiversity in Arid Regions J.

Lemons,Reginald Victor,Daniel Schaffer,2003-07-31 On the eve of the World Summit for Sustainable Development WSSD held in autumn 2002 in Johannesburg South Africa United Nations Secretary General Kofi Annan recommended five specific areas as focal points of discussion for the global forum Water energy health agriculture and biodiversity In his address Towards a Sustainable Future delivered just four months before the WSSD Secretary General Annan contended that concrete progress in each of these areas often referred to by their acronym WEHAB would be key to improving the quality of life not only in the developing world but across the globe For most people I think it is fair to say that the inclusion of biodiversity in a list that focuses on basic human needs may not be self evident Water energy health and agriculture yes But why biodiversity The truth is that biodiversity is just as critical to global well being as water energy agriculture and health This is because biodiversity both drives and shapes nature s intricate and dynamic structure in an enduring form and force that enables both current and future generations to enjoy its bounty Employment, Income Distribution and Development Strategy:
