Grief The Play Writings And Workshops:

Grief Penny Casdagli, Francis Gobey, Caroline Griffin, 1992 Arts Approaches to Conflict Marian Liebmann, 1996 Arts Approaches to Conflict explores how various arts approaches can both raise our understanding of conflict and lead to its constructive resolution Practitioners and experts from a wide range of art forms examine their own fields as approaches to conflict It is fascinating and eye opening reading for students and practitioners The Politics of Mourning Rochelle Almeida, 2004 Does one's gender race skin color nationality cultural upbringing or religious background have any impact upon the manner in which people from varying cultural environments choose to mourn their loss and resolve grief When Parents Die, 2006-01-27 This new edition of When Parents Die will speak to bereaved children of all ages in a very accessible style Rebecca Abrams draws on both her personal and professional understanding of parental loss to provide the reader with a compassionate and insightful exploration of the experience of losing a parent When Parents Die has already established itself as an indispensable aid both to the bereaved seeking some understanding of their loss and to the many professionals who work with them This new edition takes into account new research and theories and considers in more depth the continuing importance of the dead parent in one's life the critical role played by the surviving parent the experiences of younger children the impact of divorce and adoption Retaining its clear direct and sympathetic style this text will continue to appeal to the bereaved their friends and family counsellors social workers doctors nurses and teachers When Parents Die Rebecca Abrams, 2013-01-17 The death of a parent marks an emotional and psychological watershed in a person's life For children and teenagers the loss of a parent if not handled sensitively can be a lasting trauma and for adults too a parent's death can be a tremendous blow When Parents Die speaks to bereaved children of all ages Rebecca Abrams draws on her personal and professional understandings of parental loss as well as the experiences of many other adults teenagers and children to provide the reader with an honest compassionate and insightful exploration of the experience of losing a parent The book covers the entire course of grieving from the immediate aftermath of a parent's death through to the point of recovery paying particular attention to the many circumstances that can prolong and complicate mourning including sudden death An indispensable aid to the bereaved and the many professionals who work with them this book is written in a clear and sympathetic style It has been fully revised for this third edition to take recent research into account Using Literature to Help Troubled Teenagers Cope with End-of-Life Issues Janet Allen, 2002 Literacy experts and counseling professionals are innovatively paired in each chapter to explore specific types of loss and ways in which professionals can help students understand their feelings by reading about those in similar situations This original approach encourages young people to cope with their losses while improving their literacy skills BOOK JACKET McGillivray's Theatre Guide David McGillivray, 1994 Teaching Creative Writing in Canada Darryl Whetter, 2024-12-04 Teaching Creative Writing in Canada maps the landscape of Creative Writing programmes across Canada Canada's position both culturally and physically as a

midpoint between the two major Anglophone influences on Creative Writing pedagogy the UK and the USA makes it a unique and relevant vantage for the study of contemporary Creative Writing pedagogy Showcasing writer professors from Canada's major Creative Writing programmes the collection considers the climate crisis contemporary workshop scepticism curriculum design programme management prize culture grants and interdisciplinarity Each chapter concludes with field tested writing advice from many of Canada's most influential professors of fiction poetry creative nonfiction and drama This authoritative volume offers an important national perspective on contemporary and timeless issues in Creative Writing pedagogy and their varied treatment in Canada It will be of valuable to other creative teachers and practitioners those with an interest in teaching and learning a creative art and anyone working on cultural and educational landscapes

Living with Loss Katrin Den Elzen, Robert Neimeyer, Reinecke Lengelle, 2024-10-28 Living with loss From grief to wellbeing offers the latest research on adapting to and making sense of bereavement and non death losses It evaluates the effectiveness of a range of therapeutic approaches including various therapeutic writing methods that facilitate the integration of loss Living with loss whether through death or other causes is one of the most challenging experiences we face The COVID 19 pandemic had intensified the impact of these losses and increased the need for professional support and constructive therapeutic approaches This book offers perspectives on resilience the need for presence in bereavement and the assessment of functional impairment following COVID 19 losses It examines the realities of bereaved students in higher education presents and explains compassion focused grief therapy and meaning focused narrative construction and evaluates the therapeutic process of grief recovery This volume also includes a participatory research study into the effectiveness of writing through loss and is aimed at clinicians grief counselors multi disciplinary researchers lecturers and practitioners of Writing for wellbeing and will also be of value for those grieving a loved one or facing a non death loss The chapters in this book were originally published as two special issues in British Journal of Guidance and Counselling

Signature Pedagogies for the Playwriting Classroom Andrew Black, 2025-06-12 Drawing on qualitative research exploring the techniques of playwriting instructors this book outlines signature pedagogies within playwriting instruction for novice writers and how they may be reimagined and reinvigorated Through research gathered in interviews with 11 instructors and surveying their methods syllabi and handouts Andrew Black interrogates key challenges within dramatic writing pedagogy the myth that it along with creativity cannot be taught the lack of clarity about the instructional value of playwriting education for diverse contemporary audiences the tendency to allow the writing product to drive instruction rather than process and the tension between traditional and experimental models of play construction and how this can confound instructional techniques Identifying 3 indispensable and signature pedagogies that are consistently used in the classroom the writing exercise the use of mentor texts and the workshopping of student material this book describes key strategies and practices used by seasoned instructors which bring these pedagogical strategies to life strategies and practices which can support instructors in reimagining their playwriting classrooms An intervention for lorebased pedagogical models that are often out of date and reflect the biases of previous generations Black offers a starting point for instructors developing their inclusive lesson plans offering a comprehensive understanding of pedagogical options available to the instructors

Writing Hope Strategies for Writing Success in Secondary Schools Nicole Sieben, 2018-01-11 This book provides ways of thinking about the teaching of writing in secondary schools with applications to college writing and shares research based strategies for immediate use in the classroom The strengths based classroom tested student centered writing hope strategies shared within the Writing Hope Framework WHF are designed to allow students to work within their own unique writing processes and insert their individual writers voices and styles authentically The Writing Hope Framework allows students to choose which strategies and stages of the writing process they wish to engage in for purposeful writing goal attainment it recognizes unique writing approaches and accounts for these differences in curricular design and implementation Teachers can assess the writing abilities and self beliefs of the students in their classes using a variety of strategies provided and then guide students in their pathways selection processes for writing Given the nature of this research and its application it is the intention of this book to bring readers through a process of hope that can facilitate life hope and writing hope in the classroom for and with students Hope is not exclusively for the already hopeful students it is also and perhaps more critically for those students who do not presently see hope in their lives but who can Every student is capable of hope if it is facilitated effectively and purposefully

Tom Morton-Smith Plays 1 Tom Morton-Smith, 2024-06-27 Tom Morton Smith is an Olivier Award winning playwright whose works for the stage span intimate theatrical biopics to scientific explorations and broad epics In this his first play collection his major stage works are brought together for the first time in a definitive edition showcasing his extensive range as a dramatist and introduced by the author himself In Doggerland Morton Smith s script is both poetic and philosophical a thoughtful meditation on the impact of loss a touching and funny play that explores the lives of four people brought together by tragedy and hope WhatsonStage Oppenheimer A blast from start to finish Tom Morton Smith s epic new play ambitious in the very best way it really delivers its payload in its final phase as Oppenheimer finally rejects his humanity in favour of doing something truly inhuman to the people of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Time Out The Earthworks This small often funny play focusing on two fragile people rubbing up against each other at a moment of change has its own quiet heroism What appears to be a romantic comedy turns into something more unsettling raising questions about the limits of knowledge and our capacity to face up to the future Guardian Ravens An elegant study of pressure and paranoia Recounting the gruelling 21 game clash Ravens Spassky vs Fischer is a taut and cerebral character study The Stage

Does the Writing Workshop Still Work? Dianne Donnelly, 2010-05-28 This book explores the effectiveness of the workshop in the Creative Writing classroom and looks beyond the question of whether or not the workshop works to address the issue of what an altered pedagogical model might look like In visualising what else is possible in the workshop space the sixteen chapters collected in Does the Writing Workshop Still Work cover a range of theoretical and pedagogical topics and explore the inner workings and conflicts of the workshop model The needs of a growing and diverse student population are central to the chapter authors consideration of non normative pedagogies The book is a must read for all teachers of Creative Writing as well as for researchers in Creative Writing Studies The Art of Grief J. Earl Rogers, 2011-02-10 Art and other expressive therapies are increasingly used in grief counseling not only among children and adolescents but throughout the developmental spectrum Creative activities are commonly used in group and individual psychotherapy programs but it is only relatively recently that these expressive modalities have been employed within the context of clinical grief work in structured settings These forms of nonverbal communication are often more natural ways to express thoughts and feelings that are difficult to discuss particularly when it comes to issues surrounding grief and loss Packed with pictures and instructional detail this book includes an eight session curriculum for use with grief support groups as well as alternative modalities of grief art therapy
