Graziano, Robert Salmon, 2013-09-13 Get a wealth of information about the theory and practice of social work with older adults their families and their caregivers Although there is a considerable amount of writing on both group work and social work with the elderly there is surprisingly little about applying this practice method to this specific age group Group Work and Aging Issues in Practice Research and Education fills this gap by presenting penetrating articles about a mutual aid approach to working with diverse groups of older adults with varied needs Respected experts and gifted researchers provide case studies practice examples and explanation of theory to illustrate this practice method with aging adults their families and their caregivers Group Work and Aging Issues in Practice Research and Education discusses in depth information on group work with gay and lesbian elders caregivers elders with Alzheimer's disease service providers special populations such as Vietnamese and Latino elders and provides information on the use of expressive therapies like art drama and dance Each well referenced chapter presents high quality up to date social group work practice strategies to prepare practitioners for the needs of the growing population of elderly in the near future Group Work and Aging Issues in Practice Research and Education discusses the adaptation of group work practice approaches when working with older group members the use of a Record of Service as an analytical tool in group work with aging lesbians a chronicle of a student's field placement at a drop in center for homeless senior citizens the sociocultural reality of the Asian immigrant elderly residential substance abuse treatment for older adults mutual aid groups for older persons with mental illness the relationship between caregiver support groups and the marker framework of family caregiving telephone caregiver support groups group work interventions with elderly parents of adults with severe mental illness a program for the development and implementation of an intergenerational singing group support groups as an effective therapy at end of life the use of a mutual aid group with home attendants and much more Group Work and Aging Issues in Practice Research and Education reveals the latest examples of good group work practice with aging adults and their support systems perfect for practitioners educators and anyone interested in and or work with older adults Working with Older Adults: Group Process and Technique Barbara Haight, Faith

Gibson, 2005-03-30 Beginning with an overview of the changing world of aging this book goes on to address practical principles and guidelines for group work Group Work with the Elderly Ron H. Aday, Kathryn L. Aday, 1997-01-14 Through the process of group dynamics many of today's elderly have found solutions to problems by participating in groups The field of group work with the elderly much like the aging population itself has grown dramatically in recent years It is used extensively as a service modality in a wide variety of community and institutional settings serving older persons and their families This book provides a needed resource to the interdisciplinary literature on group work for use by professional researchers practitioners educators family members and older persons themselves seeking to take control of this life stage The purpose of this annotated bibliography is to provide social workers counselors group facilitators activity directors researchers and other mental health professionals with a compilation of state of the art references found in the group work literature The literature spans over a period of 25 years from 1970 1996 and identifies 451 resources Groupwork With

Children and Adolescents Ralph L Kolodny, James A Garland, 2018-10-24 This state of the art information on social groupwork with children and youth provides theoretical guidelines and suggestions for practice Each authoritative chapter represents a blending of old and new practice models and syntheses of various knowledge perspectives and emphasizes the subtlety and unpredictability of groupwork Experts addresses the issues of getting groups started adapting group programs to the needs of younger school age children and using group therapy with young abused and neglected girls They also include specific observations about the psychic and social developmental characteristics of the age groupings as a guiding factor in choosing group models and intervention techniques Topics discussed include aspects of group dynamics group techniques resistance stages in group development and developmental issues of group members Mutual Aid Groups, Vulnerable and Resilient Populations, and the Life Cycle Alex Gitterman, Lawrence Schulman, 2005-02-23 The contributors to this volume examine the role of mutual aid groups and social workers in helping members of oppressed vulnerable and resilient populations regain control over their lives The chapters reveal the ways in which mutual aid processes help individuals overcome social and emotional trauma in contemporary society by reducing isolation universalizing individual problems and mitigating stigma Using the life cycle as a framework the editors establish a theoretical model for practice and demonstrate how social workers as group leaders can foster the healing and empowering process of mutual aid The contributors also consider the fundamentals of the mutual aid process the institutional benefits of group service and specific clinical examples of mutual aid groups Each chapter offers detailed case materials that illustrate both group work skills and developmental issues for a variety of populations and settings including HIV positive and AIDS patients the homeless and perpetrators and victims of sexual abuse and family violence New chapters in this completely revised and updated third edition illustrate the power of mutual aid processes in dealing with children traumatized by the events of September 11 adult survivors of sexual abuse parents with developmentally challenged children people with AIDS in substance recovery and mentally ill older adults
