Growing In The Life Of Faith Education And Christian Practices:

Growing in the Life of Faith, Second Edition Craig Dykstra, 2005-09-02 In this new edition of his popular book Craig Dykstra explores the contributions of the traditions education worship practices and disciplines of the Reformed Christian community in helping people grow in faith In doing so he makes the case that the Christian church in its own traditions has a wealth of wisdom about satisfying spiritual hunger and the desire to know God deeply wisdom that offers coherent thoughtful guidance in such diverse settings as congregational life families youth groups and higher education Growing in the Life of Faith Craig R. Dykstra, 1999 In this new edition of his popular book Craig Dykstra explores the contributions of the traditions education worship practices and disciplines of the Reformed Christian community in helping people grow in faith In doing so he makes the case that the Christian church in its own traditions has a wealth of wisdom about satisfying spiritual hunger and the desire to know God deeply wisdom that offers coherent thoughtful guidance in such diverse settings as congregational life families youth groups and higher education This edition includes a study guide by Syd Hielema a new foreword by Dorothy C Bass and a new preface by the author It is ideal for clergy Christian educators spiritual directors and all who are interested in finding guidance in their quest for a genuine encounter with God Book jacket For Life Abundant Dorothy C. Bass, Craig Dykstra, 2008-04-29 Bass and Dykstra have written extensively and collaboratively on Christian Practices arguing that the what Christians have done faithfully over time constitutes a life giving way of life and that this living of Christianity is more primary to what it means to be Christian than doctrinal confession that our confessions spring from faithful living rather than the other way around This book contains numerous essays that take up the question of Christian Practices and ministry the preparation of ministers theological education etc in a post Enlightenment understanding of the relationship of practice and head knowledge Because the book is the result of a community conversation it doesn't have a clear thesis but it models its conviction that reflection on theology arises from community conversation around our life in discipleship together An extremely helpful beginning to a conversation about ministry practices of faith clergy preparation etc as the time has come to integrate the kind of learning that comes in the classroom with the kind that only comes from living the faith with others Amazon.com Educating People of Faith John H. Van Engen, 2004 A much needed addition to the emerging literature on the formative power of religious practices Educating People of Faith creates a vivid portrait of the lived practices that shaped the faith of Jews and Christians in synagogues and churches from antiquity up to the seventeenth century This significant book is the work of Jewish Roman Catholic Orthodox and Protestant scholars who wished to discover and describe how Jews and Christians through history have been formed in religious ways of thinking and acting Rather than focusing solely on either intellectual or social life the authors all use the concept of practices as they attend to the embodied contextual character of religious formation Their studies of religious figures community life and traditional practices such as preaching sacraments and catechesis are colorful detailed and revealing The authors are also careful to cover the nature of religious education across all social levels from the textual formation of highly literate rabbis and monks engaged in Scripture study to the local formation of illiterate medieval Christians for whom the veneration of saints shrines street performances of religious dramas and public preaching by wandering preachers were profoundly formative Educating People of Faith will benefit scholars and teachers desiring a fuller perspective on how lived practices have historically formed people in religious faith It will also be useful to practical theologians and pastors who wish to make the resources of the past available to practitioners in the present Contributors John C Cavadini Anne L Clark Lawrence S Cunningham Joseph Goering Robert Goldenberg Stanley Samuel Harakas Robert M Kingdon Blake Leyerle Michael A Signer Philip M Soergel David C Steinmetz John Van Engen Lee Palmer Wandel Robert Louis Wilken Elliot R Wolfson

Teaching and Christian Practices David Smith, James K. A. Smith, 2011-10-10 In Teaching and Christian Practices several university professors describe and reflect on their efforts to allow historic Christian practices to reshape and redirect their pedagogical strategies Whether allowing spiritually formative reading to enhance a literature course employing table fellowship and shared meals to reinforce concepts in a pre nursing nutrition course or using Christian hermeneutical practices to interpret data in an economics course these teacher authors envision ways of teaching and learning that are rooted in the rich tradition of Christian practices as together they reconceive classrooms and laboratories as vital arenas for faith and spiritual growth

Generations of Faith Resource Manual John Roberto, Mariette Martineau, 2005-07 This invaluable resource offers planning processes and practical tools for fashioning and implementing a lifelong curriculum Includes a CD ROM with PowerPoint presentations for each chapter as well as worksheets and handouts

Baptism and Christian Identity Gordon S. Mikoski, 2009-07-02 In this book Gordon Mikoski examines how the sacrament of baptism the doctrine of the Trinity and the practice of Christian education together constitute a dynamic nexus that has the potential to foster congregations marked by the formation of both deep Christian identity and creative engagement in public arenas for the common good After establishing the necessity of holding baptism Trinity and ecclesial pedagogy together through his careful study of both Gregory of Nyssa and John Calvin Mikoski outlines how this nexus can function for contemporary Christian communities as they carry out the work of educational ministry He then explores the dynamics of faith formation in the contemporary American context concluding with a suggestive treatment of implications of the baptism Trinity pedagogy nexus for the educational ministry of a given congregation

Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality Karen-Marie Yust, Aostre N. Johnson, Sandy Eisenberg Sasso, Eugene C. Roehlkepartain, 2005-12-27 Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality Perspectives from the World's Religious Traditions provides a forum for prominent religious scholars to examine the state of religious knowledge and theological reflection on spiritual development in childhood and adolescence Featuring essays from thinkers representing the world's major religious traditions the book introduces new voices challenges assumptions raises new questions and broadens the base of knowledge and investment in this important domain of life It specifically and intentionally focuses on theological and philosophical perspectives from within religious traditions creating space for the religious traditions to find their voices Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality is firmly grounded in the language and priorities of religious studies and helps stimulate explorations of whether and how religious communities are tapping their own wisdom and strengths in nurturing today's young people in a complex and changing world Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality will set the stage for new waves of scholarship and dialogue within and across traditions disciplines and cultures that will enrich understanding and strengthen how the world's religious traditions and others understand and cultivate the spiritual lives of children and adolescents around the globe

Story, Formation, and Culture Benjamin D. Espinoza, 2018-10-15 Story Formation and Culture brings together a myriad of scholars researchers and ministry leaders into conversation about how we can effectively nurture the spirituality of children Built around the three themes of story formation and culture this volume blends cutting edge research and insights with attention to how we can bring theory into practice in our ministries with children The work of children's spiritual formation is often a marginalized component in the church's overall ministry This volume seeks to equip pastors leaders and scholars with cutting edge research and practices that effectively strengthen their ministries with children

Sensing Sacred Jennifer Baldwin, 2016-08-30 Sensing Sacred is an edited volume that explores the critical intersection of religion and body through the religious lens of practical theology with an emphasis on sensation as the embodied means in which human beings know themselves others and the divine in the world The manuscript argues that all human interaction and practice including religious praxis engages body through at least one of the human senses touch smell hearing taste sight kinestics proprioception Unfortunately body and more specifically and ironically sensation is eclipsed in contemporary academic scholarship that is inherently bent toward the realm of theory and ideas This is unfortunate because it neglects bodies physical or communal as the repository and generator of culturally conditioned ideas and theory It is ironic because all knowledge transmission minimally requires several senses including sight touch and hearing Sensing Sacred is organized into two parts The first section devotes a chapter to each human sense as an avenue of accessing religious experience while the second section explores religious practices as they specifically focus on one or more senses The overarching aim of the volume is to explicitly highlight each sense and utilize the theoretical lenses of practical theology to bring to vivid life the connections between essential sensation and religious thinking and practice

From Bubble to Bridge Marion H. Larson, Sara L. H. Shady, 2016-12-13 Many Christians especially those in Christian college bubbles worry that engaging in interfaith dialogue will require watering down their faith In this timely book Marion Larson and Sara Shady help evangelicals engage in interfaith dialogue offering practical wisdom for turning our faith bubbles into bridges of interfaith engagement

A Grammar of Christian Faith Joe R. Jones, 2002-06-03 A Grammar of Christian Faith is a two volume set that aims to confront the widespread disarray in the language and practices of Christian faith today As a grammar

it explains how Christian faith provides special ways of speaking and acting that make sense of human life by giving it meaning practicality and hope It advances the thesis that learning how to speak Christian language in worship and life is crucial to learning how to be a Christian Rather than supposing that Christian language and theology need continual updating in order to be relevant to the world Jones urges the church to recover anew how Christian concepts and understanding are intended to form Christian life in all its rich depths Construing theology as confessional theology in the context of the church Jones understands the church as that liberative and redemptive community called into being by the Gospel of Jesus Christ to witness in word and deed the triune God for the benefit of the world The full range of doctrinal themes that are deemed essential to the witness of the church are explored including clear explanations of why they are essential and how they are to be understood In pursuit of a truthful and beneficial witness of the church the work centers on a trinitarian understanding of God in which God freely and lovingly interacts with the world as Creator Reconciler and Redeemer The work throughout affirms the belief that the gracious triune God is the Ultimate Companion who will redeem all creation

Living into Community Christine D. Pohl,2011-12-20 Every church every organization has experienced them betrayal deception grumbling envy exclusion They make life together difficult and prevent congregations from developing the skills virtues and practices they need to nurture sturdy life giving communities In Living into Community Christine Pohl explores four specific Christian practices gratitude promise keeping truth telling and hospitality that can counteract those destructive forces and help churches and individuals build and sustain vibrant communities Drawing on a wealth of personal and professional experience and interacting with the biblical historical and moral traditions Pohl thoughtfully discusses each practice including its possible complications and deformations and points to how these essential practices can be better cultivated within communities and families

Gathered Before God Jane Rogers Vann,2004-01-01 What is the central purpose of the church today How can churches experience renewal through worship In Gathered before God Jane Rogers Vann answers these important questions by studying ten vibrant small medium and large churches Her findings she argues show that worship is the most important thing churches do and is vital to the renewal of congregational life Vann explores how these congregations changed into worship centered churches and how their experiences can help other churches do the same Gathered before God offers resources for pastors worship leaders and Christian educators to reflect on their worship leading to an openness to change and processes to help church leaders support each other during the periods of reform and renewal Moving beyond the contemporary versus traditional debate Gathered before God is an earnest call for us all to reclaim worship as a central act of our life together as Christians that expresses clearly what the church believes about God itself and the world

The Quest for Love Divine Paul W. Chilcote,2022-07-26 Charles Wesley and early Methodist women shaped Wesleyan theology and practice just as much as John Wesley All these pioneers in the renewal of the church engaged together in a quest for love divine That journey led them to timeless discoveries related to God s grace the liberating nature of life in Christ the joy of Christian discipleship and the sense of purpose to be found in partnering with God in the celebration of beloved community The early Methodist people learned their theology by singing it Faith working by love leading to holiness of heart and life Accountable discipleship The rediscovery of a missional church Discover the meaning of sound bites like these as you explore these themes and more Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World Sally A.

Brown,2020-04-07 What can preachers do to help congregants navigate everyday life with the courage imagination and savvy it takes to testify in action and word to God's mercy and justice Christianity's witness depends on credible Christian lives carried out in ordinary settings of everyday life Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World helps preachers design sermons that equip believers to act with improvisational creative courage in the ordinary settings of their Monday to Saturday lives How can we who preach inspire the ordinary prophets of our time those who in Christ's name will act in great or small ways as agents of redemptive interruption Sally A Brown with her extensive experience both in parish ministry and training others for ministry shares preaching strategies that equip these ordinary prophets to take daring action Brown begins by reconsidering the power and limits of the missional model of Christian witness and argues that Christian witness today must be adaptive and therefore imaginative and improvisational She then turns to the connection between the sermons our listeners hear on Sunday and their capacity to timely inventive action in everyday situations Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World will inspire both preachers and those who listen to them to move from sanctuary to street week after week eager to discern and participate in the ongoing redemptive work of God already under way amid the ordinary scenes and settings of their Monday to Saturday lives Practical Wisdom Malcolm L. Warford,2004 Contemporary theological education is facing profound changes Fundamental shifts in both church and society have established a volatile context for theological teaching and learning Seminaries are struggling with the growing diversity of their students faculties and institutional commitments This book addresses these issues both contextually and historically engages the nature of theological teaching and learning and offers educational practices that strengthen the vocation of teaching and enhance the school as a place of conversation

The Continuing Relevance of Wesleyan Theology Nathan Crawford,2011-06-01 What does the Wesleyan message have to say to the greater theological world This is a question that Laurence Wood has taken up as his concern throughout his career In order to honor his work this collection takes up this question through a series of essays designed to show how Wesleyan Theology while distinctive has a continued relevance to the wider world of theological scholarship This collection does this in two ways First by showing how the Wesleyan distinctives have been present throughout the history of theology And secondly the collection brings the Wesleyan distinctives into conversation with various contemporary theological conversations ranging from theological hermeneutics and the science religion dialogue to the practice of preaching and spirituality The result is a volume that puts Wesleyan theology into continued dialogue with the broader theological world showing its vitality and importance for the contemporary situation Created in Delight Timothy L. Van Meter,2013-03-20 Created in Delight challenges the church to take seriously the relationship of human beings with the earth and their fellow creatures It challenges communities of faith to construct youth and young adult ministry through an ecological hermeneutic Van Meter includes narratives from his youth work and teaching as well as ecological theology and an exploration of contemporary ecological concerns He challenges youth and young adult ministers to seek their own formation through practicing hope in resistance to despair as they engage ecological questions in partnership with young people The book concludes by asserting that cultivating curiosity compassion resilience wisdom and other virtues is essential for the continuing health of young people and faith communities

Creative in the Image of God Katherine M. Douglass, 2020-03-02 The declining religious participation among young adults or Rise of the Nones has signaled alarms across American Christianity A closer look into the faith lives of thirty young adults who are or were at one time connected with a church however shows an articulate and aesthetically embodied faith life that seeks out connection with others expression of their identity and an openness to encountering God Young adults see themselves and all people in this pluralistic world as bearing the image of God They see creativity in their own lives and in the lives of others as evidence of this identity This book is not an appeal to put more art into congregations but rather an invitation to attend to aesthetic embodied ways of knowing that exist among all people
