Remembering the Cultural Geographies of a Childhood Home Peter Hughes Jachimiak, 2016-04-08 Using an innovative auto ethnographic approach to investigate the otherness of the places that make up the childhood home and its neighbourhood in relation to memory derived and memory imbued cultural geographies Remembering the Cultural Geographies of a Childhood Home is concerned with childhood spaces and children's perspectives of those spaces and consequentially with the personalised locations that make up the childhood family home and its immediate surroundings such as the garden the street etc Whilst this book is primarily structured by the author's memories of living in his own Welsh childhood home during the 1970s that is the auto ethnographic framework it is as much about living anywhere amid the remembered cultural remnants of the past as it is immersing oneself in cultural geographies of the here and now As a result Remembering the Cultural Geographies of a Childhood Home is part of the ongoing pursuit by cultural geographers to provide a personal exploration of the pluralities of shared landscapes whereby such an engagement with space and place aids our construction of cognitive maps of meaning that in turn manifest themselves as both individual and collective cultural experiences Furthermore touching upon our co-habiting of ghost topologies Remembering the Cultural Geographies of a Childhood Home also encourages a critical exploration of children's spirituality amid the haunted cultural and geographical spaces and places of a house and its neighbourhood the cellar hallway parlour stairs bedroom attic shops cemeteries and so on
