Award Finalist Taking flight from their quiet Pennsylvania town seems like the only way for Tori Boyd to protect her dearest cousin's virtue. And the success of their escape may now depend on the man she's been writing letters to for over a year now in the vast wilds of the Wyoming Territory. Ezra Reid has finally stepped out from under the shadow of his older brother and sister as the success or failure of the Rocky Ridge stage and telegraph contracts falls squarely on his shoulders. He's entirely focused on the work at least until his mysterious correspondence partner shows up on his doorstep. As Ezra takes on the search for a proper situation for Tori and her cousin, there seem to be no good options for the ladies. Especially since Tori won't even discuss the one option that might succeed: marriage. When the danger chasing the women takes on a form none of them anticipated, how far will Ezra have to go to keep the Tori and her cousin safe? A Mountain Christmas Romance Book 4

Stripped of the family so important to his Viking heritage, Matthias Bjork is now on the hunt for his sister. Despite combing the entire Wyoming Territory, he hasn't found any substantial leads regarding his sister's whereabouts, but he has discovered a most unusual woman. Opal Boyd has finally found the haven she's longed for all her life in a most unlikely place, working for a German couple in this remote Wyoming mountain town. She learned long ago that most men couldn't be trusted, but the mountain man, boarding with her friends, seems to have the respect and affection of the two people she's learned to trust implicitly. When he shares the magical experience of his family's traditional Viking Yule celebration, she can't help but fall a little more in love with him. Each one of the twelve days of Christmas. But when Matthias' search for his sister takes an unexpected twist, Opal is forced to make a choice that will alter the course of her life, no matter which answer she chooses.

Dear Hartley J. J. Bila, 2021-11-16 A mother writes honest, reflective letters to guide her son as he navigates through life with a common sense appeal to the next generation. Drop the worst and take the best of what you're given. In these days of nonstop, round-the-clock division, where confrontation is our most prevalent form of entertainment, we've forgotten the more fundamental things that unite us. We've lost track of the importance of conversations that foster growth, self-reflection, and discovery of one another while cultivating our sense of shared humanity. In her new book Dear Hartley, J. J. Bila reignites much-needed conversations about everything from character and empathy to parenting and friendship, from education and family to fitness and food. Through fifty-two heartwarming letters to her son, Bila shares a road map she hopes he will revisit often, one he can turn to for strength and guidance throughout his life. Connecting her love for her child with her hopes and dreams for the next generation, Bila's letters reveal an exciting path forward, jam-packed with quick wit and authentic, unpredictable insights. These letters welcome us into Bila's personal journey of mistakes made and lessons learned. Dear Hartley presents a chance for us to find common ground and unite in our wish for a better, brighter world, especially for the children in our lives. An independent thinker, Bila has always been an outspoken proponent of common sense and truth, even when she found herself in situations where it wasn't always welcome. Here, in these pages, she has an open platform to tell it like it is, and she does. Readers are invited to travel beside her with an open mind and an open heart, as
