The Economic Geography of Air Transportation John T. Bowen, 2010-04-05 Drawing upon hundreds of mainly secondary sources this book answers three questions how did air transportation develop in the century after the Wright Brothers what does it mean to live in an airborne world and what is the future of aviation in this century

The Child in American Evangelicalism and the Problem of Affluence David A. Sims, 2009-06-01 This work presents an evangelical theology of the child nurtured in the context of American evangelicalism and affluence It employs an eclectic theological critical method to produce a theological anthropology of the affluent American evangelical child AAEC through interdisciplinary evangelical engagement of American history sociology and economics Sims articulates how affluence constitutes a significant impediment to evangelical nurture of the AAEC in the discipline and instruction of the Lord Thus the problem he addresses is nurture in evangelical affluence conceived as a theological anthropological problem Nurture in the cultural matrices of the evangelical affluence generated by technological consumer capitalism in the U S impedes spiritual and moral formation of the AAEC for discipleship in the way of the cross This impediment risks disciplinary formation of the AAEC for capitalist culture cultivates delusional belief that life consists in an abundance of possessions and hinders the practice of evangelical liberation of the poor on humanity s underside The result is the AAEC s spiritual moral lack in late modernity Chapter 1 introduces the problem of the AAEC Chapters 2 and 3 provide a diachronic lens for the theological anthropology of the AAEC through critical assessment of the theological anthropologies of the child in Jonathan Edwards Horace Bushnell and Lawrence Richards Chapters 4 and 5 constitute the synchronic perspective of the AAEC Chapter 4 presents an evangelical sociology of the AAEC drawing upon William Corsaro s theory of interpretive reproductions and chapter 5 constructs an evangelical theology of the AAEC through critical interaction with John Schneider s moral theology of affluence Chapter 6 Whither the AAEC concludes with a recapitulation of the work and a forecast of possible futures for the AAEC in the twenty first century     Advanced

Placement Economics John S. Morton, Rae Jean B. Goodman, 2003     Recovering Environmental and Economic Traditions in the Islamic World, 2024-10-21 Recovering Environmental and Economic Traditions in the Islamic World is an interdisciplinary volume that interrogates varied approaches to environmental and economic thought in classical Islam and in a few contemporary case studies The contributions in this volume critique the dominant economic system and its perspective on the environment as a commodity across the boundaries of multiple intellectual traditions and academic fields The book analyses both historical trajectories and modern schools of thought while simultaneously exploring ethical applications to environmental and economic discourses as a tool of critique In this context the authors conceptualize and treat these discourses as polyvalent and enmeshed with various political ethical and cosmological perspectives and vistas

The Institutionalist Tradition in Labor Economics Dell P. Champlin, Janet T. Knoedler, 2004-08-24 While there are many economists in academia government unions and nonprofit organizations working in the institutionalist tradition there is currently no book on the market describing this tradition Editors Champlin and Knoedler have brought together prominent labor economists highly respected institutional economists and newer scholars working on issues of such current importance as immigration wage discrimination and living wages Their essays portray the institutionalist tradition in labor as it exists today as well as its historical and theoretical origins This work is a major contribution to the literature of labor economics institutionalist economics and the history of economic thought     Social Economy Science Gorgi Krlev, Dominika Wruk, Giulio Pasi, Marika Bernhard, 2024-02-22 This book provides the first comprehensive analysis of why and how social economy organizations create superior value for society The chapters discuss the social economy s role in promoting innovation for impact as well as its role as an agent of societal change and as a partner to businesses governments and citizens     The

Happiness Equation Nick Powdthavee, 2010-08-05 Why is marriage worth 200 000 a year Why will having children make you unhappy Why does happiness from winning the lottery take two years to arrive Why does time heal the pain of divorce or the death of a loved one but not unemployment Everybody wants to be happy But how much happiness precisely will each life choice bring Should I get married Am I really going to feel happy about the career that I picked How can we decide not only which choice is better for us but how much it is better for us The result of new unique research The Happiness Equation brings to a general readership for the first time the new science of happiness economics It describes how we can measure emotional reactions to different life experiences and present them in ways we can relate to How for instance monetary values can be put on things that can't be bought or sold in the market such as marriage friendship even death so that we can objectively rank them in order of preference It also explains why some things matter more to our happiness than others like why seeing friends is worth more than a Ferrari while others are worth almost nothing like sunny weather Nick Powdthavee whose work on happiness has been discussed on both the Undercover Economist and Freakonomics blogs brings cutting edge research on how we value our happiness to a general audience with a style that wears its learning lightly and is a joy to read
