Douglas Atkins,2010-01-25 Approaches abound to help us beneficially enjoyably read fiction poetry and drama Here for the first time is a book that aims to do the same for the essay G Douglas Atkins performs sustained readings of more than twenty five major essays explaining how we can appreciate and understand what this currently resurgent literary form reveals about the art of living Atkins s readings cover a wide spectrum of writers in the English language and his readings are themselves essays gracefully written engaged and engaging Atkins starts with the earliest British practitioners of the form including Francis Bacon John Dryden Alexander Pope and Samuel Johnson Transcendentalist writers Henry David Thoreau and Ralph Waldo Emerson are included as are works by Americans James Baldwin Zora Neale Hurston and E B White Atkins also provides readings of a number of contemporary essayists among them Annie Dillard Scott Russell Sanders and Cynthia Ozick Many of the readings are of essays that Atkins has used successfully in the classroom with undergraduate and graduate students for many years In his introduction Atkins offers practical advice on the specific demands essays make and the unique opportunities they offer especially for college courses The book ends with a note on the writing of essays furthering the author s contention that reading should not be separated from writing Reading Essays continues in the tradition of such definitive texts as Understanding Poetry and Understanding Fiction Throughout Atkins reveals the joy delight grace freedom and wisdom of the glorious essay Reading In Bed Brian Doyle,2017-12-20 If you love to read or write or both you ll appreciate Brain Doyle passionate observer of and commentator on all things written In this ultimate collection of his thoughts on writers and writing and readers and reading he covered everything from what the books people keep stashed in the cars or sitting on their bookshelves tell you about them to the pleasures of reading box scores or what s hung on refrigerator doors to the scent that books and newspapers give off as they age to literary genres of books about nature or travel or Portland or almost any subject you can name to in his humble opinion the great and not so great but still essential writers to why the essay is the coolest wildest literary form of all But don t believe us listen to him Think how many times in your own work you were typing along happily cursing and humming and suddenly you wrote something you didn t know you felt so powerfully and maybe you cried right there by the old typewriter and marveled not always happily at what dark thread your typing had pulled from the mysterious fabric of your heart Maybe that happens the most with essays This could be The Best American Nonrequired Reading 2003 Dave Eggers,2003 A collection including new fiction essays satire journalism among others intended for a young audience high schoolers and college students In Short Judith Kitchen,Mary Paumier Jones,1996 An anthology of 90 brief nonfiction pieces with the works arranged so that a common theme connects one piece to the next Reading for Preaching Cornelius Plantinga, Jr.,2013-11-30 In Reading for Preaching Cornelius Plantinga makes a striking claim preachers who read widely will most likely become better preachers Plantinga himself a master preacher shows how a wide reading program can benefit preachers First he says good reading generates delight and the preacher who enters the world of delight goes with God Good reading can also help tune the preacher s ear for language his or her primary tool General reading can enlarge the preacher s sympathies for people and situations that she or he had previously known nothing about And above all the preacher who reads widely has the chance to become wise This beautifully written book will benefit not just preachers but anyone interested in the wisdom to be derived from reading Works that Plantinga interacts with in the book include The Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini Enrique's Journey by Sonia Nazario Silence by Shusaku Endo How Much Land Does a Man Need by Leo Tolstoy Narcissus Leaves the Pool by Joseph Epstein Les Misérables by Victor Hugo and many more Crafting Presence Nicole B. Wallack, 2017-06-01 Essays are central to students and teachers development as thinkers in their fields In Crafting Presence Nicole B Wallack develops an approach to teaching writing with the literary essay that holds promise for writing students as well as for achieving a sense of common purpose currently lacking among professionals in composition creative writing and literature Wallack analyzes examples drawn primarily from volumes of The Best American Essays to illuminate the most important quality of the essay as a literary form the writer's presence She demonstrates how accounting for presence provides a flexible and rigorous heuristic for reading the contexts formal elements and purposes of essays Such readings can help students learn writing principles practices and skills for crafting myriad presences rather than a single voice Crafting Presence holds serious implications for writing pedagogy by providing new methods to help teachers and students become more insightful and confident readers and writers of essays At a time when liberal arts education faces significant challenges this important contribution to literary studies composition and creative writing shows how an essay centered curriculum empowers students to show up in the world as public thinkers who must shape the knowledge economy of the twenty first century Reading Myself and Others Philip Roth, 2022-09-21 Fascinating interviews essays and articles spanning a quarter century on writing baseball American fiction and American Jews from the Pulitzer Prize winning author of American Pastoral and one of the greatest writers of the 20th century An illuminating glimpse of the theory and practice that have made Roth a major figure in American fiction Chicago Daily News Here is Philip Roth on himself and his work and the controversies it's engendered Here too are Roth's writings on the Eastern European writers he has always championed and so much more The essential collection of nonfiction by a true American master Reading Myself and Others features his famed long interview with the Paris Review Reading Cats and Dogs Françoise Besson, Zélia M. Reading the Mountains of Home John Elder, 1998 Small farms once occupied the heights that John Elder calls home but now only a few cellar holes and tumbled stone walls remain among the dense stands of maple beech and hemlocks on these Vermont hills Reading the Mountains of Home is a journey into these verdant reaches where in the last century humans tried their hand and where bear and moose now find shelter As John Elder is our guide so Robert Frost is Elder's companion his great poem Directive seeing us through a landscape in which nature and literature loss and recovery are inextricably joined Over the course of a year Elder takes us on his hikes through the forested uplands between South Mountain and North Mountain reflecting on the forces of nature from the descent of the glaciers to the rush of the New Haven River that shaped a plateau for his village of Bristol and on the human will that denuded and farmed and abandoned the mountains so many years ago His forays wind through the flinty relics of nineteenth century homesteads and Abenaki settlements leading to meditations on both human failure and the possibility for deeper communion with the land and others An exploration of the body and soul of a place an interpretive map of its natural and literary life Reading the Mountains of Home strikes a moving balance between the pressures of civilization and the attraction of wilderness It is a beautiful work of nature writing in which human nature finds its place where the reader is invited to follow the last line of Frost's Directive to Drink and be whole again beyond confusion
