Supervising Student

Employees in Academic Libraries David A. Baldwin, 1991-09-15 Library administrators have taken the student work force for granted for a long time and are only now beginning to realize that this important group accounts for a significant portion of the operating budget Baldwin describes the role of student employees and the supervisor including hiring orientation and performance appraisal He discusses some common problems as well as corrective discipline and termination procedures A separate chapter is devoted to federal student aid programs because of their role in student employment The specific orientation of this well organized handbook makes it essential for any supervisor of student employees

Continuing Education of Reference Librarians Bill Katz, 2019-12-06 This book first published in 1990 addresses the concerns of librarians that they must be informed and educated in order to excel in their work It focuses on specific types of training for librarians

Authorities explain pioneering programs in California and Maryland which deal with teaching basic reference tools to beginning librarians and paraprofessionals They also discuss the role of multitype networks in continuing education as the most cost and time efficient means available today and the use of self directed contract learning as a method that requires long term planning and rewards in contrast to the immediate results of a short term plan of education The management perspective of continuing education is also included Working library directors offer their observations on sound inspirational approaches to continuing education They also examine the critical role department heads play as mentor to beginning reference librarians Communicating Professionally, Third Edition Catherine Sheldrick Ross, Kirsti Nilsen, 2013-07-17 An updated and expanded version of the training guide Booklist called one of the most valuable professional publications to come off the presses in a long time the new third edition of Communicating Professionally is completely revised with new sections outlining the opportunities offered by contemporary communication media With more resource information on cross cultural communication including new applications of communication principles and the latest research based material on communication in general this comprehensive manual covers Fundamental skills such as listening speaking and writing Reading others nonverbal behavior How to integrate skills with tips for practicing Sense making a theory of information as communication Common interactions like speaking one on one working in groups and giving presentations Training others in communication skills including a special section on technology based training

Continuing Education of Reference Librarians William A. Katz, 1990 Here is a crucial book on the neglected issue of continuing education of reference librarians For librarians seeking to enhance and maintain a high level of quality reference work and for managers who must assure that their staffs receive the basics in continuing education this is essential reading Continuing Education of Reference Librarians addresses the concerns of all librarians that they must be informed and educated in order to excel in their work In the first several chapters of this comprehensive volume on the job librarians focus on the increased need for nontraditional approaches to continuing education and training of reference staff They offer practical ways of making additional training both useful and relatively easy to carry out within the library setting Teachers of reference offer suggestions for contending with current formal courses and they also examine the responsibilities of not only the reference librarian but also the bibliographer and faculty member in staying abreast of current trends Also in this broad based look at continuing education is a list of critical skills most librarians expect of their reference people including reference interview techniques mastery of basic reference sources and an understanding of new technologies a review of the most revolutionary change in teaching reference librarianship in the last 100 years the online search and a discussion on ethics including the need for librarians to be aware of the basic documents of the American Library Association and more importantly the need to treat all library users equally in terms of access and service regardless of status and personal prejudice Continuing Education of Reference Librarians focuses on specific types of training for librarians Authorities explain pioneering programs in California and

Maryland which deal with teaching basic reference tools to beginning librarians and paraprofessionals They also discuss the role of multitype networks in continuing education as the most cost and time efficient means available today and the use of self directed contract learning as a method that requires long term planning and rewards in contrast to the immediate results of a short term plan of education The management perspective of continuing education is also included Working library directors offer their observations on sound inspirational approaches to continuing education They also examine the critical role department heads play as mentor to beginning reference librarians Agricultural Libraries Information Notes ,1986

New Automation Technology for Acquisitions and Collection Development Rosann Bazirjian,2019-12-06 This book first published in 1995 describes how automation is changing the face of acquisitions as librarians know it and making the future uncertain yet exciting It documents how libraries have increasingly moved to powerful second generation interfaceable or integrated systems that can control all aspects of library operations The libraries presented as examples show that increasing user expectations the siren call of cyberspace and network connectivity and administrative faith in the savings to be obtained from electronic technical services continue to drive the migration to higher level library management systems
