Eight Technologies Of Otherness:

The Eight Technologies of Otherness Dr Sue Golding, Sue Golding, 2002-09-11 The Eight Technologies of Otherness is a bold and provocative re thinking of identities politics philosophy ethics and cultural practices In this groundbreaking text old essentialism and binary divides collapse under the weight of a new and impatient necessity Consider Sue Golding s eight technologies curiosity noise cruelty appetite skin nomadism contamination and dwelling But why only eight technologies And why these eight in particular Included are thirty three artists philosophers filmmakers writers photographers political militants and pulp theory practitioners whose work or life has contributed to the re thinking of otherness to which this book bears witness throw out a few clues

Out of Touch Maureen F. Curtin, 2013-09-13 Out of Touch investigates how skin has become a crucial but disavowed figure in twentieth century literature theory and cultural criticism These discourses reveal the extent to which skin figures in the cultural effect of changes in visual technologies a development argued by critics to be at the heart of the contest between surface and depth and by extension Western globalization and identity politics The skin has a complex history as a metaphorical terrain over which ideological wars are fought identity is asserted through modification as in tattooing and meaning is inscribed upon the human being Yet even as interventions on the skin characterize much of this history fantasy and science fiction literature and film trumpet skin s passing in the cybernetic age and feminist theory calls for abandoning the skin as a hostile boundary

Controversies in Body Theology Marcella Althaus-Reid, Lisa Isherwood, 2008 Examines some of the most extreme approaches to the body that our society engages with This book embraces the difficult and challenging areas of the body and society as an embodied resource for the ever expanding task of considering the nature of incarnation through the lens of body theology

Nomadic Education, 2008-01-01 This comprehensive and thoughtful volume is the first book to investigate assess and apply a philosophy of education drawn from the great French philosopher Gilles Deleuze It contains powerful and beautiful essays by some of the most influential Deleuze and Guattari commentators the chapters by Bogue Colebrook May and Semetsky and Genosko are particularly rewarding The book provides very useful situations within the philosophy of education and some interesting experimental developments of Deleuze s work notably in terms of new technologies and original methods This is then an indispensable work on Deleuze and education It covers the historical background and begins shaping debates for future research in this exciting and growing area Professor James Williams Professor of European Philosophy School of Humanities University of Dundee author of Gilles Deleuze s Difference and Repetition A Critical Introduction and Guide and The Transversal Thought of Gilles Deleuze Encounters and Influences Deleuze always said that education was an erotic voluptuous experience perhaps the most important experience we can have This collection captures that excitement and challenges what we think about how Deleuze should be taught and just as importantly what he taught Ian Buchanan Centre for Critical and Cultural Theory Cardiff University author of Deleuze and Guattari s Anti Oedipus and founding editor of

Deleuze Studies Here are thirteen encounters with Deleuze's work that not only testify of the creativity and newness of Deleuze's own writing but that by taking these ideas into the field of education raise new questions signal new problems and provide genuinely new ways of educational thinking and being A rich source of inspiration for anyone who believes that education should not be about the reproduction of what already exists but should be committed to what is to become Gert Biesta University of Stirling author of Beyond Learning Democratic Education for a Human Future co editor of Derrida Education

Black Queer Studies E. Patrick Johnson, Mae G. Henderson, 2005-11-01 A groundbreaking collection of sixteen essays that examines the productive intersection of the fields of black and queer studies

The Horror Reader Ken Gelder, 2000 This study brings together writings on this controversial genre spanning the history of horror in literature and film It discusses texts from the United States Europe the Caribbean and Hong Kong

Gendering Spaces in European Towns, 1500-1914 Elaine Chalus, Marjo Kaartinen, 2019-03-13 Towns are imagined lived and experienced as much as they are conceived and constructed They reflect cultural and intellectual currents prevailing economic climates and unresolved tensions They are physical entities shaped by topography time and technology as well as social and spatial constructs They are also always gendered and contested spaces This volume the last from the Gender in the European Town GENETON project approaches life in the European town over time and across class and national boundaries Through contextualized case studies it provides scholars and students with new research snapshots of contemporary physical and built environments that explores how contemporary urban residents experienced and deployed gendered urban spaces over an important period of modernization

The Rhetorical Foundations of Society Ernesto Laclau, 2014-05-20 The essays collected in this volume develop the theoretical perspective initiated in Laclau and Chantal Mouffe's classic Hegemony and Socialist Strategy Central to the argument of The Rhetorical Foundations of Society is the establishment of rhetorical tropes such as metaphor metonymy and catachresis as the non foundational grounds of society From this basis Laclau explores the state of social relations in today's heterogeneous society Employing analytical philosophy from both phenomenological and structuralist traditions he seeks to locate an ontological terrain for interpersonal relationships Further he investigates the definition of social antagonism in an increasingly globalized world where the proliferation of conflicts and points of rupture erodes crucial links between the social subjects postulated by classical social analysis

Queers in American Popular Culture Jim Elledge, 2010-10-06 This three volume collection of essays reveals the widespread existence of queer men and women in American popular culture and showcases their important yet little known role in shaping our society over the last 120 years The virtually unknown existence of gay bisexual and queer men and women in American popular culture from the late 1800s through the present day is a fascinating topic for many readers regardless of their own orientation Whether it's the father of bodybuilding famous closeted entertainers or sports stars or the leading characters in current television shows and films queer men and women have changed the face of American popular culture and society for over a century Ironically most of the fascinating information anecdotes and revealing facts about well known figures in American culture are virtually unknown to the typical U S citizen Elledge s Queers in American Popular Culture covers a wide variety of historical and current topics that documents how the queer community has been and continues to be one of the most significant shapers of American popular culture Currently no other book covers queer topics in American popular culture as broadly as this text

The Queer German Cinema Alice A. Kuzniar,2000 On German homosexual cinema Sexual Citizens Brenda Cossman,2007 This book explores the relationship between sex and belonging in law and popular culture arguing that contemporary citizenship is sexed privatized and self disciplined Former sexual outlaws have challenged their exclusion and are being incorporated into citizenship But as citizenship becomes more sexed it also becomes privatized and self disciplined The author explores these contesting representations of sex and belonging in films television and legal decisions She examines a broad range of subjects from gay men and lesbians pornographers and hip hop artists to women selling vibrators adulterers and single mothers on welfare She observes cultural representations ranging from Queer Eye for the Straight Guy to Dr Phil Sex in the City to Desperate Housewives She reviews appellate court cases on sodomy and same sex marriage national welfare reform and obscenity regulation Finally the author argues that these representations shape the terms of belonging and governance producing good and bad sexual citizens based on the degree to which they abide by the codes of privatized and self disciplined sex Understanding Whole-School Approaches to LGBTQ+ Inclusion Jonathan

Glazzard, Samuel Stones,2024-06-03 The book provides a comprehensive theoretical exploration of LGBTQ inclusion in schools drawing on critical insights from across the disciplines of sociology psychology history and queer theory to present a robust theoretical foundation for school wide approaches to LGBTQ inclusion Examining key concepts such as minority stress and post gay identities it offers a nuanced understanding of the historical attitudes and systemic oppression faced by the LGBTQ community The chapters construct an ecological framework that highlights the unique challenges encountered by LGBTQ students and teachers in educational settings This framework serves as the basis for a model that advocates for proactive measures in fostering an inclusive environment in schools This includes the development of inclusive policies practices culture and curricula The book concludes by contemplating the potential applications of this model in Higher Education extending its relevance beyond K 12 schools to also include universities and colleges This volume will be valuable resource for researchers scholars educators and policymakers interested in promoting LGBTQ inclusion in educational institutions and with interests in gender and education whole school approaches LGBTQ and diversity and inclusion more broadly Sexuality and Gender at Home Brent Pilkey,Rachel Scicluna,Ben Campkin,Barbara Penner,2020-05-27

Sexuality and Gender at Home is the first book to explore the meanings and experiences of home through the framework of sexuality Looking at a broad spectrum of sexuality gender and domesticity it examines the many ways in which home is constructed performed and experienced in relation to sexuality and gender Considering identity issues such as age class

ethnicity and gender the authors problematize intimacy and question conventional ways of thinking about allegedly private home space Comprehensive introductions to each of the book's three sections on Intimacy and Home Queering Home Beyond Home provide a coherent overview of the existing literature as well as additional historical and cultural context Fourteen chapters present ground breaking research and insights into sexuality gender and home across culture time and space Written by academics from a range of subject disciplines chapters are based on research covering countries including Australia France Sweden the UK the USA Guyana Israel and Singapore This highly original text is the ideal starting point for anyone wishing to get to grips with the emerging field of sexuality gender and home and will particularly appeal to researchers and students in anthropology architecture gender studies sociology and human geography

Public Space and Relational Perspectives Chiara Tornaghi, Sabine Knierbein, 2014-12-05 Traditional approaches to understand space tend to view public space mainly as a shell or container focussing on its morphological structures and functional uses That way its ever changing meanings contested or challenged uses have been largely ignored as well as the contextual and on going dynamics between social actors their cultures and struggles The key role of space in enabling spatial opportunities for social action the fluidity of its social meaning and the changing degree of publicness of a space remain unexplored fields of academic inquiry and professional practice Public Space and Relational Perspectives offers a different understanding of public spaces in the city The aim of the book is to re introduce the lived experiences in public life into the teaching curricula of those academic disciplines which deal with public space and the built environment such as architecture planning and urban design as well as the social sciences The book presents conceptual practical and research challenges and brings together findings from activists practitioners and theorists The editors provide eight educational challenges that educators can endorse when training future practitioners and researchers to accept and to engage with the social relations that unfold in and through public space Cover image KARO

Bare Architecture Chris L. Smith, 2017-10-19 Bare Architecture a schizoanalysis is a poststructural exploration of the interface between architecture and the body Chris L Smith skilfully introduces and explains numerous concepts drawn from poststructural philosophy to explore the manner by which the architecture body relation may be rethought in the 21st century Multiple well known figures in the discourses of poststructuralism are invoked Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari Roland Barthes Georges Bataille Maurice Blanchot Jorge Luis Borges and Michel Serres These figures bring into view the philosophical frame in which the body is formulated Alongside the philosophy the architecture that Smith comes to refer to as bare architecture is explored Smith considers architecture as a complex construction and the book draws upon literature art and music to provide a critique of the limits extents and opportunities for architecture itself The book considers key works from the architects Douglas Darden Georges Pingusson Lacatan and Vassal Carlo Scarpa Peter Zumthor Marco Casagrande and Sami Rintala and Raumlabor Such works are engaged for their capacities to foster a rethinking of the relation between architecture and the body

On the

Postcolony Achille Mbembe, 2001 Refreshing a stale debate about power in the postcolonial state this book addresses a topic debated across the humanities and social sciences how to define discuss and address power and the subjective experience of ordinary people in the face of power

Agent-Based Computational Modelling Francesco C. Billari, 2006-03-13 The present book describes the methodology to set up agent based models and to study emerging patterns in complex adaptive systems resulting from multi agent interaction It offers the application of agent based models in demography social and economic sciences and environmental sciences Examples include population dynamics evolution of social norms communication structures patterns in eco systems and socio biology natural resource management spread of diseases and development processes It presents and combines different approaches how to implement agent based computational models and tools in an integrative manner that can be extended to other cases

White Richard Dyer, 2017-09-19 Now twenty years since its initial release Richard Dyer's classic text White remains a groundbreaking and insightful study of the representation of whiteness in Western visual culture White explores how while racial representation is central to the organisation of the contemporary world white people have remained a largely unexamined category in sharp contrast to the many studies of images of black and Asian peoples Looking beyond the apparent unremarkability of whiteness Dyer demonstrates the importance of analysing images of white people Dyer places this representation within the contexts of Christianity race and colonialism In a series of absorbing case studies he shows the construction of whiteness in the technology of photography and film as part of a wider culture of light discusses heroic white masculinity in muscle man action cinema from Tarzan and Hercules to Conan and Rambo analyses the stifling role of white women in end of empire fictions like Jewel in the Crown and traces the associations of whiteness with death in Falling Down horror movies and cult dystopian films such as Blade Runner and the Aliens trilogy This twentieth anniversary edition includes a new introductory chapter by Maxime Cervulle entitled Looking into the light Whiteness racism and regimes of representation This new introduction illuminates how Dyer has made a major contribution to the study of contemporary regimes of representation by unveiling the cultural mechanisms that have formed and reinforced white hegemony mechanisms under which white people have come to represent what is ordinary neutral even universal

Neil Jordan Maria Pramaggiore, 2008 An Irish director of dark narratives with a postmodern sense of irony

Troubled Masculinities Kenneth James Moffatt, 2012-01-01 Through personal narratives and assessments of artistic expression the contributors present critical and inventive views of masculinity and how it is performed and interpreted in urban space Set against the backdrop of Toronto the essays engage with the global and transnational processes that affect identity and consider how the social hybridity of large cities allows individuals to work against fundamentalist and essentialist attitudes toward gender
