William Honyman Gillespie, 1856 Liturgy and Hymns for the Use of the Protestant Church of the United Brethren, Or Unitas Fratrum Moravian Church, 1863 The Baptist Magazine, 1847 Unmanly Men Brittany E. Wilson, 2015 New Testament scholars typically assume that the men who pervade the pages of Luke's two volumes are models of an implied manliness Scholars rarely question how Lukan men measure up to ancient masculine mores even though masculinity is increasingly becoming a topic of inquiry in the field of New Testament and its related disciplines Drawing especially from gender critical work in classics Brittany Wilson addresses this lacuna by examining key male characters in Luke Acts in relation to constructions of masculinity in the Greco Roman world Of all Luke's male characters Wilson maintains that four in particular problematize elite masculine norms namely Zechariah the father of John the Baptist the Ethiopian eunuch Paul and above all Jesus She further explains that these men do not protect their bodily boundaries nor do they embody corporeal control two interrelated male gender norms Indeed Zechariah loses his ability to speak the Ethiopian eunuch is castrated Paul loses his ability to see and Jesus is put to death on the cross With these bodily violations Wilson argues Luke points to the all powerful nature of God and in the process reconfigures or refigures men's own claims to power Luke however not only refigures the so called prerogative of male power but he refigures the parameters of power itself According to Luke God provides an alternative construal of power in the figure of Jesus and thus redefines what it means to be masculine Thus for Luke real men look manifestly unmanly Wilson's findings in Unmanly Men will shatter long held assumptions in scholarly circles and beyond about gendered interpretations of the New Testament and how they can be used to understand the roles of the Bible's key characters
