Grieving As A Woman Moving Through Lifes Many Losses:

Grieving As a Woman Kass P. Dotterweich, 1998 Here is a book about grief written by a woman for women about the way women experience life's many losses Grieving as a Woman is at once practical and philosophical psychological and spiritual down to earth yet profound A Woman's Guide Through Grief and Loss Betty Hill Crowson, 2022-02-22 How does one begin to maneuver through the multi faceted maze of grief and loss How are we supposed to feel What do we do next We don't know what we don't know As much as we have learned and been taught in life there has never been clear cut directions practical guidance and hands on support to get through a devastating loss That is until now We Don't Know What We Don't Know A Woman's Guide through Grief and Loss has been written to provide easily readable and relatable answers to our questions Based upon her decades of personal and professional experience author Betty Hill Crowson brings an entirely new perspective and clarity to the work of grieving She gently guides the reader through a process of learning to differentiate and cope with widely fluctuating emotions taking steps to get their feet back under them paying attention for and disempowering the shadow aspects of grief identifying and addressing old behaviors and responses that keep one stuck and taking specific doable steps to heal and to move forward Above all Crowson offers hope that we will get through this While grief and loss dramatically alter a woman's life they also provide opportunities for us to grow to be of service to others and to create something new and meaningful with what is yet to come Basic Types of Pastoral Care & Counseling Howard Clinebell, 2011-08-01 Basic Types of Pastoral Care and Counseling remains the standard in pastoral care and counseling This third edition is enlarged and revised with updated resources methods exercises and illustrations from actual counseling sessions This book will help readers be sensitive to cultural diversity ethical issues and power dynamics as they practice holistic growth oriented pastoral care and counseling in the parish Understanding Loss and Grief for Women Robert W. Buckingham, Peggy A. Howard Ph.D., 2017-05-18 This book can enhance everyone's understanding of how women experience loss and grief and how they transition to resolution It is an invaluable resource to women and everyone who supports them spouses partners and family members as well as community and government Women's grief is often a complex phenomenon a natural normal experience but one that can seriously impact everyone female or male at every stage of life Understanding Loss and Grief for Women A New Perspective on Their Pain and Healing provides a way to look at how women experience loss through the lens of their socially constructed roles and in light of the theories and practice of grief therapy and support The book begins by explaining the social construction of women's traditional transitional and modern postmodern roles and then addresses the social construction of grief theory and practice in past eras and modern society Several case studies enable readers to see how social constructs shape women's responses to various causes of grief such as the death of a spouse or partner child marriage divorce and career retirement The final section of the book examines the health impacts of grief offers suggestions to ameliorate negative health impacts and emphasizes how loss and grief for women can be used as opportunities for self growth This book serves all members of the general population as well as educators academics scientists and students of disciplines such as psychology psychotherapy medicine sociology and women s studies It will enable all women to better understand deal with and heal from their loss and grief experience Male readers will empathize with what their spouses partners mothers grandmothers siblings and friends are experiencing in loss and grief and understand how to support healthy transition through grief to resolution The community at large and care providers will learn how to create a more nurturing and supportive environment for women s grief response Grief and Loss Across the Lifespan Carolyn Ambler Walter, Judith L. M. McCoyd, 2009-03-23 Grief and Loss Across the Lifespan represents a significant advance because it looks at the issues from a bio psychosocial perspective To a social worker who has worked mainly in a medical and nursing environment this is a great step forward Bereavement Care Offers valued sensitivities knowledge and insights and most importantly age appropriate interventions for a range of significant losses Counselors will want to keep this indispensable work close at hand Kenneth J Doka PhD Author Counseling Individuals With Life Threatening Illness By taking a lifespan view this book fills a gap in the literature on loss and grief and takes theory and practice in new and invigorating directions It will be welcomed by those professionals of all disciplines who daily listen to and help re write narratives of loss Jeffrey S Applegate PhD Professor Emeritus Graduate School of Social Work Social Research Bryn Mawr College A thorough thoughtful sensitive and up to date contribution that may be the best book available today for teaching bereavement grief and mourning Highly recommended for experienced grief professionals as well as for students Jeffrey Kauffman MA MS LCSW BD CT CAS BCETS Psychotherapist in private practice Philadelphia PA Walter and McCoyd have written a well organized and comprehensive examination of grief and bereavement that will be useful to the seasoned professional as well as the student new to grief and loss The historical analysis of grief theory from classic to postmodern is interesting reading and essential for a full understanding of grief and loss in modern society Paige E Payne MS MSW LSW Support Services Manager PinnacleHealth Home Care and Hospice Harrisburg PA Grief and Loss Across the Lifespan is unique in its treatment of grieving patterns and intervention strategies for different age groups With this book students and practitioners will learn how grief is influenced by biological responses to stress psychological responses to loss as well as social norms and support networks The authors utilize a developmental framework as each level of development from infancy through old age is addressed in four ways Reviews normal developmental issues abilities and challenges for the age in question Analyzes how individuals of each age cope with serious loss of a significant other and how they may experience life threatening illness themselves Examines how significant others react to and mourn the death of someone in that age range Identifies the normative losses a person is likely to experience and addresses protective and risky ways of coping with those losses The authors review important grief theories such as postmodern and Dual Process Theory and discuss current topics in grief including continuing bonds meaning making ambiguous loss and disenfranchised loss With the help of this book practitioners and students of grief counseling can learn to help patients of all ages understand that loss is at the heart of life and growth
