Esler, 2017-02-15 In 1961 archaeologists discovered a family archive of legal papyri in a cave near the Dead Sea where their owner the Jewish woman Babatha had hidden them in 135 CE at the end of the Bar Kokhba revolt Babatha's Orchard analyzes the oldest four of these papyri to argue that underlying them is a hitherto undetected and surprising train of events concerning how Babatha's father Shim'on purchased a date palm orchard in Maoza on the southern shore of the Dead Sea in 99 CE that he later gave to Babatha The central features of the story untold for two millennia relate to how a high Nabatean official had purchased the orchard only a month before but suddenly rescinded the purchase and how Shim on then acquired it in enlarged form from the vendor Teasing out the details involves deploying the new methodology of archival ethnography combined with a fresh scrutiny of the papyri written in Nabatean Aramaic to investigate the Nabatean and Jewish individuals mentioned and their relationships within the social ethnic economic and political realities of Nabatea at that time Aspects of this context which are thrown into sharp relief by Babatha s Orchard include the prominence of wealthy Nabatean women and their husbands financial reliance on them the high returns and steep losses possible in date cultivation the sophistication of Nabatean law and lawyers the lingering effect of the Nabateans nomadic past in lessening the social distance between elite and non elite and the good ethnic relations between Nabateans and Jews

The Textual History of the Letter to the Romans Harry Y. Gamble, 1977 A revision of the author s thesis Yale 1970

Who Wrote the Dead Sea Scrolls? Dr Norman Golb, 2013-02 Dr Norman Golb s classic study on the origin of the Dead Sea Scrolls is now available online Since their earliest discovery in 1947 the Scrolls have been the object of fascination and extreme controversy Challenging traditional dogma Golb has been the leading proponent of the view that the Scrolls cannot be the work of a small desert dwelling fringe sect as various earlier scholars had claimed but are in all likelihood the remains of libraries of various Jewish groups smuggled out of Jerusalem and hidden in desert caves during the Roman siege of 70 A D Contributing to the enduring debate sparked by the book's original publication in 1995 this digital edition contains additional material reporting on new developments that have led a series of major Israeli and European archaeologists to support Golb's basic conclusions In its second half the book offers a detailed analysis of the workings of the scholarly monopoly that controlled the Scrolls for many years and discusses Golb's role in the struggle to make the texts available to the public Pleading for an end to academic politics and a commitment to the search for truth in scrolls scholarship Who Wrote the Dead Sea Scrolls sets a new standard for studies in intertestamental history This book is must reading It demonstrates how a particular interpretation of an ancient site and particular readings of ancient documents became a straitjacket for subsequent discussion of what is arguably the most widely publicized set of discoveries in the history of biblical archaeology Dr Gregory T Armstrong Church History Golb gives us much more than just a fresh and convincing interpretation of the origin and significance of the Qumran Scrolls His book is also a fascinating case study of how an idee fixe for which there is no real historical justification has for over 40 years dominated an elite coterie of scholars controlling the Scrolls Daniel O Hara New Humanist Text, Translation, Theology Bertil Albrektson, 2016-04-01 Text translation theology the three nouns in the title indicate the main fields of Old Testament study which are covered in this collection of essays Text refers both to the history of biblical texts and to problems of textual criticism Translation of the Hebrew Bible as a philological task is a central subject in several essays Theology does not define what the essays are but what some of them are about religious ideologies are objects of enquiry Bertil Albrektson gathers together a selection of his essays some of which have become classics which were written on separate occasions and published in different sometimes rather remote places They cover more than four decades of research and for the first time they are now brought together in this accessible volume Bertil Albrektson is a Swedish Old Testament scholar of international repute awarded the Burkitt Medal for Biblical Studies by The British Academy in 2003 His writing was characterized by the late Professor P R Ackroyd of King's College London as a model of learning clarity and dry humour This volume offers a unique resource to current scholars of biblical studies The Bible at Qumran Tae Hun Kim, 2001-03-26 This new volume in the Studies in the Dead Sea Scrolls and Related Literature series explores two principal themes the text and shape of the Bible at Qumran and the interpretation of these scriptures by the Qumran community and other ancient Jews Written by leading scholars in the field these informed studies make an important contribution to our understanding of these two pivotal topics Expectations of the End Albert Hogeterp, 2010-01-01 Since a fuller range of Qumran sectarian and not clearly sectarian texts and recensions has recently become available to us its implications for the comparative study of eschatological apocalyptic and messianic ideas in the Dead Sea Scrolls and in the New Testament need to be explored anew This book situates eschatological ideas in Qumran literature between biblical tradition and developments in late Second Temple Judaism and examines how the Qumran evidence on eschatology resurrection apocalypticism and messianism illuminates Palestinian Jewish settings of emerging Christianity The present study challenges previous dichotomies between realized and futuristic eschatology wisdom and apocalypticism and provides many new insights into intra Jewish dimensions to eschatological ideas in Palestinian Judaism and in the early Jesus movement Texte und Untersuchungen zur Geschichte der altchristlichen Literatur, 1968 'Go Out and Study the Land' (Judges 18:2) Aren M. Maeir, Jodi Magness, Lawrence Schiffman, 2011-11-25 Hanan Eshel was a prolific scholar in the field of Dead Sea Scrolls Classical Archaeology of the Near East and many other topics During his terminal illness friends and colleagues got together to present him with a collection of studies on topics that were close to his fields of interest as an expression of deep friendship and admiration The volume contains the 22 papers presented to Hanan before his death covering topics in archaeology history and textual studies with a particular emphasis on aspects relating to the Dead Sea Scrolls spanning the late Iron Age through late Antiquity Haggai, Zechariah, Malachi - An Exegetical Commentary Eugene H.
