Covenant Bible Study: Trusting Participant Guide Prof. David L. Bartlett, Covenant Bible Study, Dr. Alejandro F. Botta, Dr. Michael Joseph Brown, Dr. Diane Chen, Dr. Stephanie Buckhanon Crowder, David A. deSilva, Prof. Judy Fentress-Williams, Prof. Francisco Garcia-Treto, Roy Heller, Prof. Matthew L. Skinner, Dr. Brent A. Strawn, Prof. Monya Stubbs, Dr. Audrey West, Prof. Christine R. Yoder, Dr. Jaime Clark-Soles, Dr. William P. Brown, Dr. Amy Erickson, Prof. Linda M. Day, Dr. Patricia K. Tull, Dr. Melody Knowles, Prof. Thomas B. Slater, Dr. Daniel L. Smith-Christopher, Rev. Shane Stanford, Christine A. Chakoian, 2016-08-16 This Covenant experience will guide participants in a comprehensive in depth study of the Bible over twenty four weeks Unlike the learning participants may have experienced in other groups this in depth study of the whole Bible emphasizes the biblical concept of covenant as a unifying pattern through all the books in the Old and New Testaments It underscores the unique relationship that God chooses to have with us as God s people This relationship is grounded in the faithfulness of God s love and on our ongoing commitment to stay in love with God while we share signs of that love with others Each episode connects to an aspect of this covenant relationship which is summarized in the heading of each participant guide LIFE AS WE ALL KNOW TOO WELL IS IMPERFECT Difficulties are inevitable That s why the final eight weeks Trusting the Covenant looks at the crises that sometimes call covenant life into question and how we are restored to trust in God when troubling things happen This module discusses the loss of hope and how it is restored by faithfulness in the midst of suffering From the story of Job to the Hebrew exile to the apocalyptic visions in Daniel and Revelation we learn how faithful love is at work in everything to restore hope freedom and wholeness to our lives Each participant in the group needs the Participant Guides and a Bible The CEB Study Bible is preferred The Trusting Participant Guide is 8 weeks long and has a lay flat binding making it easy to take notes in the generous space provided on each page The Trusting Participant Guide contains the following episodes Episode 17 John 1 2 and 3 John For John the God we meet in Jesus is the one who keeps coming into the world going out of the way to be in relationship with us Jesus meets his followers in whatever ways they need with new and abundant life Jesus draws people back into community and promises the Holy Spirit to those who follow him Episode 18 Psalms Psalms are songs poems and prayers to and about God There is diversity of authorship across the Psalms Three major types of psalms are laments thanksgiving psalms and psalms of praise The psalms are user friendly and give voice to our conflicts confessions and cries for God s rescuing help The Psalms teach us how to pray and that God s primary character trait is faithful love Episode 19 Job Like the Bible as a whole the book of Job offers a number of voices or perspectives Job stages difficult human questions such as Why do human beings worship God or Why do people suffer and even what is God s role in suffering The book of Job also asks Does good behavior bring blessing and Does bad behavior bring curse and suffering Episode 20 Jeremiah Lamentations Ezekiel Jeremiah Lamentations and Ezekiel offer three different perspectives on the same catastrophic event the Babylonian destruction of Jerusalem in 587 CE and the exile

of God's people to a foreign land. These books affirm the power of lingering with sorrow so we can hear the voices of those who are suffering. Any hope found in these books remains in the promise that God will bring life to dry bones or write a new covenant on hearts in a blessed but distant future.

Episode 21: Isaiah 40-66 The story of how Israel gained and lost the land becomes a treasure that they carry with them into exile. The poetry in these passages is written to inspire and invite God's homesick people in Babylon to become pioneers and return home to Israel. The God of Israel is no regional deity but is the one and only God of all everywhere and all the time. Through fire and water, chaos and captivity, the people called by God and redeemed by God also belong to God.

Episode 22: 1 and 2 Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah The people returning home from exile in successive waves must rebuild their whole way of life. Ezra and Nehemiah look at the practical need for city walls and a center for worship. The Chronicler stresses the importance of remembering our story in the right way in order to understand who we are in this new life. The practices that sustained the people in exile will define a people who weren't old enough to remember life before exile.

Episode 23: Apocalyptic Daniel Apocalyptic literature is not primarily about future events. It looks at traumatic events in the present and finds a divine plan at work. By using vivid symbols and imagery, the court tales and visions of Daniel stress that God ultimately controls human events. The identity of faithful people is defined by living faithfully according to the covenant teachings in a context where those values are under threat. Faith has its price, but our hope in God empowers us to never give up.

Episode 24: Revelation Revelation is a book written for poor people struggling under great duress. It uses vivid, terrifying images to express God's unswerving faithfulness and the faithfulness of those who stand firm in the face of dehumanizing forces in the world. The symbol of hope in Revelation is the new creation and loyal love between God and the faithful. This symbol provides comfort, courage, and assurance that the one who made a covenant with all things at the very beginning will be with us at the end of all things.

The Next Christians Participant's Guide Gabe Lyons, 2011-01-08. In his six-session small group Bible study, The Next Christians, Gabe Lyons cites modern-day examples and looks ahead over the next century to how Christians can adapt to a new way of living their faith. In the wake of the stunning findings that UnChristian Gabe Lyons and David Kinneman's book shared with the world about younger generations' disenchantment with Christianity, Gabe Lyons became an active participant in many key discussions about the future of Christianity in the U.S. and the world. The Next Christians study takes into account recent efforts at Christian renewal, addressing the significant challenges that could undermine the viability of Christianity if the faithful do not employ a completely new outlook. In it, your small group will discuss the ideas presented in the book. The Next Christians, Lyons looks ahead at how Christianity can and must adapt over the next 100 years as he optimistically paints a picture of how its best days might lay ahead as a new generation rediscovers their faith in this unprecedented new era in the West. This Participant Guide features discussion questions, background information on each character, space to write down thoughts, a helpful Leader's Guide, and much more.

International Development from a Kingdom Perspective James Butare-Kiyovu, 2010 The ongoing task of international development has dominated the headlines and the airwaves as of late especially with the establishment of the Millennium Development Goals the growing numbers of celebrities involved in charity work and an expanding global awareness of our humanity's interdependence. Nowhere has the challenge of international development been more acutely felt than among Christian congregations and faith-based NGOs. While followers of Christ certainly face a daunting challenge in the fight against global issues of poverty and oppression, there has never before been a time when Christians have been as equipped to help and informed about the situation of our world as they are now. With this in mind, Christians everywhere can move forward in their task of development with hope in their hearts. The articles compiled here by James Butare Kiyovu highlight the promise God holds out for those who would work towards shalom on this earth and offer the same challenge that is quoted from the late Dr. Ralph D. Winter in the introduction to this anthology: No generation has less excuse than ours if we do not do as He asks. The Palgrave Handbook of Educational Leadership and Management Discourse Fenwick W. English, 2022-10-13. This Handbook explores the discourse within the field of educational leadership and management. It provides a clear analysis of the current field as well as older foundational ideas and newer concepts which are beginning to permeate the discussion. The field of educational leadership and management has long acknowledged that educational contexts include a variety of leaders beyond school principals and other school officials such as informal and middle-level leaders. By looking at the knowledge dynamic rather than a static knowledge base, this Handbook allows research to be presented in its multidimensional, evolving reality.

Missions Gailyn Van Rheenen, 2014-07-22. In a rapidly changing world, the central missionary vision of the church must be constantly renewed lest its foundations become lost in the confusion of change or its practices trapped in missionary models of the past. In this second edition of Missions, long-time missionary Gailyn Van Rheenen revises and updates his classic text on Christian missions, laying sound theological and strategic foundations for the missionary of today and tomorrow. Van Rheenen helps renew the missionary vision by discussing areas such as: The history of Christian mission and how it affects where we are today; Spiritual formation for God's mission; The missionary cycle; Cross-cultural communication; The character and calling of missionaries; Types of missionaries; Church maturation; Selecting mission fields; The role of money in missions; Four levels of involvement in missions. But Missions is more than blackboard theory. Written by a long-time missionary, it carries the conviction and insights of one who has lived his subject. Accessible to students, practitioners, and laypeople alike, Missions provides a primary go-to resource for understanding and becoming involved in the dynamic activity of world missions.
