Quality Of Life And Older People Bond, John, Corner, Lynne, 2004-09-01
 Quality of life and older people reviews the way that older people talk about their quality of life and how this differs from the ways that younger people, researchers and scientists, policy makers and professionals discuss it. The book challenges the traditional approaches to the meaning and measurement of quality of life in older people by placing older people's accounts at the centre. It draws on a range of behavioural and social science knowledge to present a new way of thinking and understanding about quality of life and older people.

Handbook of Assessment in Clinical Gerontology Peter A. Lichtenberg, 2010-08-20
 New trends in mental healthcare practice and a rapid increase in the aged population are causing an explosion in the fields of clinical gerontology and geropsychology today. This comprehensive second edition handbook offers clinicians and graduate students clear guidelines and reliable tools for assessing general mental health, cognitive functioning, functional age, psychosocial health, comorbidity, behavior deficits and more. Psychopathology, behavioral disorders, changes in cognition and changes in everyday functioning are addressed in full and a wide range of conditions and disorders common to this patient population are covered. Each chapter provides an empirical review of assessment instruments, assessment scales in their totality, a review of how these instruments are used with and adapted for different cultural groups, illustration of assessments through case studies and information on how to utilize ongoing assessment in treatment and/or treatment planning. This combination of elements will make the volume the definitive assessment source for clinicians working with elderly patients. The most comprehensive source of up to date data on gerontological assessment with review articles covering psychopathology, behavioral disorders, changes in cognition and changes in everyday functioning. Consolidates broadly distributed literature into single source saving researchers and clinicians time in obtaining and translating information and improving the level of further research and care they can provide. Chapters directly address the range of conditions and disorders most common for this patient population i.e. driving ability, mental competency, sleep, nutrition, sexual functioning, dementia, elder abuse, depression, anxiety disorders etc. Fully informs readers regarding conditions most commonly encountered in real world treatment of an elderly patient population. Each chapter cites case studies to illustrate assessment techniques. Exposes reader to real world application of each assessment discussed.
