Durban, 1995-08-01 The seven stories in Pam Durban s widely praised debut collection are tales of family of love and loss of survival and affirmation Durban s resonant prose subtly obliges her readers to experience the rush of icy water in a stream the taste of greens freshly snatched from an overgrown garden the dread weight of confusion and uncertainty In This Heat the opening story a mill worker faces the long expected loss of her teenage son when his weak heart finally gives out In the title story which concludes the collection a formidably eccentric woman abruptly leaves her daughter and granddaughter to answer a calling to do missionary work in Africa Framed between these two stories is a gathering of characters made real and consequential by Durban s touch a country singer more than a few big breaks short of stardom a preadolescent boy lovestruck over his private swimming instructor a father cut off from his children by haunting war memories and others
