Architecture as Cultural and Political Discourse Daniel Grincer,2016-02-26 This book is concerned with cultural and political discourses that affect the production of architecture It examines how these discursive mechanisms and technologies combine to normalise and aestheticise everyday practices It queries the means by which buildings are appropriated to give shape and form to political aspirations and values Architecture is not overtly political It does not coerce people to behave in certain ways However architecture is constructed within the same rules and practices whereby people and communities self govern and regulate themselves to think and act in certain ways This book seeks to examine these rules through various case studies including the reconstructed Notre Dame Cathedral the Nazi era Munich Königsplatz Auschwitz concentration camp and the Prora resort Sydney's suburban race riots and the Australian Immigration Detention Centre on Christmas Island

Childhood, Youth and Migration Christine Hunner-Kreisel, Sabine Böhne, 2016-07-15 This book shows the different ways in which migration matters in the context of global and local childhood and youth Furthermore it highlights that childhood youth and migration as well as local and global perspectives need to be thought and analyzed together to address the significant dimensions of social inequality in the context of growing up Migration as a phenomenon is most often motivated by the search for a better life Very often children and young people migrating alone or together with their families migrate to ameliorate their own or others living conditions and seize opportunities for realizing a good life Today as well as in the past this search for a better life is very often triggered by socio economic reasons war or terrorism Against the backdrop of the topic raised above the book deals with children and young people's own perspective in countries of migration It promotes the idea of connecting global and local issues of childhood and youth with a special focus on questions of education It studies questions of global and local living and highlights living circumstances shaped by patterns of migration and mobility Australasian Medical Gazette, 1906 Daily Consular and Trade Reports, 1938
