

Strategies for Teaching Students with Emotional and Behavioral Disorders

- There are numerous strategies out there for teaching students with emotional and behavioral disorders.
- It is important for the teacher to create a community where all students are respectful and encourage others.
- Some of those strategies are:
 - After a week, or so, of observation, try to anticipate classroom situations where the student's emotional state will be vulnerable and be prepared to apply the appropriate mitigative strategies.
 - Check on the student's basic capacity to communicate and adjust your communications efforts accordingly.
