Feature Writing For Students

Feature writing is an exciting way for students to explore storytelling, combining factual reporting with narrative techniques to engage readers deeply. Whether you're covering a school event, profiling a notable person in your community, or exploring a significant issue, feature articles allow you to delve into the subject matter with creativity and depth. Here's a simple guide to help students craft compelling feature stories.

Choosing a Topic

- Interest and Relevance: Pick a subject that fascinates you and is relevant to your audience.
- Unique Angle: Find a unique perspective or an untold aspect of a well-known story to stand out.

Research and Interviews

- Comprehensive Research: Gather detailed information about your topic from reliable sources.
- Interviews: Talk to people directly involved or knowledgeable about your subject to add depth and authenticity to your story.

Writing Your Feature

1. Headline

- Create an engaging headline that captures the essence of your story and piques curiosity.

2. Lead (Intro)

- Start with a strong opening that grabs attention. Use an anecdote, a striking fact, or a compelling question.
