Becky was visiting Aunt Agatha at her house at the beach. It was a beautiful summer day. Becky had built a giant sand castle that morning. Aunt Agatha took pictures of the castle to send to Becky's parents. It was a great big sand castle. Later that morning, Becky and Aunt Agatha went swimming in the ocean. It was fun to jump with the waves. Then, they went in the house and ate sandwiches and strawberries for lunch.

Becky wanted to play on the beach that afternoon. Aunt Agatha told her it was too hot to go outside without a hat on. Becky didn't have a hat. Aunt Agatha told her not to worry, she could wear one of hers. Becky tried on four hats. The pink one was really pretty, but it had a big bow in the back that was too long for Becky. The green hat was too fancy for Becky. She did not like that hat at all. The blue hat was nice, but it had an ugly bird on it. Then, Becky saw a big brown hat with a yellow ribbon on it. That hat was made of straw. It was a perfect hat for the beach. It was too big for Becky's head but she didn't care. It was a great hat.

students at their deemed instructional levels but how these instructional levels are determined is suspect With a comprehensive critical analysis of instructional level pedagogy Shanahan exposes its shaky foundations and shows how faulty research findings have become so entrenched He gathers an extensive body of research studies that overwhelmingly contradict the instructional level theory and offers an evidence based consideration of how educators must instead use grade level reading to bring about maximum learning gains This seminal book concludes with practical advice for implementing grade level reading instruction including detailed descriptions of the types of instruction and scaffolding needed to increase students reading achievement from teaching decoding and challenging texts to scaffolding reading to maintaining motivation Shanahan asserts that a better approach can ensure that all students have an opportunity to leave high school with reading abilities commensurate with their personal social civic and economic goals
