Student's Book Jacqueline Saint Clair Stokes,Jacqueline St Clair Stokes,1984 Task Listening Teacher's Book Lesley Blundell,Jackie Stokes,1981-03-26 Extensive notes on how to use the Task Listening material and completed tasks for each unit Teaching Listening Comprehension Penny Ur,1984-03-30 Teaching Listening Comprehension provides a range of activities illustrating techniques appropriate for both adults and children Listening Anne Anderson,Tony Lynch,1988-07-07 What does language comprehension involve How can teachers best go about selecting and designing effective listening materials for themselves In Listening the authors provide a much needed perspective on the subject and include material from their own recent work in comprehension task design Listening Automaticity: A Reduction of Dual-Task Interference and Working Memory Demands Bartolo Bazan,2024-10-24 SUMMARY This book explores the concept of automaticity in the context of second language listening focusing on how practice can lead to the ability to perform listening tasks with minimal cognitive effort The author argues that through practice lower level subcomponents of listening can be executed autonomously requiring less executive control and reducing dual task interference an indication of automaticity Despite the extensive research on automatization across various skills this book addresses a gap in the literature regarding second language listening from a cognitive psychology perspective It integrates theories from cognitive sciences such as attentional theories of skill acquisition working memory and imagery with linguistic concepts to create a comprehensive framework for investigating listening automaticity Key features of the study include an examination of what types of practice are most effective in fostering listening automaticity The book discusses innovative approaches to assessing listening automaticity including the use of combined tests to evaluate constructs accurately Additionally the research investigates whether practice leads to a decrease in the involvement of executive functions during listening tasks and explores the potential of visuospatial working memory as a predictor of listening automaticity Utilizing Rasch models the research offers validation for the cognitive and linguistic measures employed linking longitudinal data through common items to provide deeper insights into the automatization process The implications of this research extend to both theoretical understanding and practical applications in pedagogy making it relevant for educators researchers and students in cognitive psychology psycholinguistics and assessment Overall the book

aims to contribute to the advancement of automaticity research particularly in the realm of second language acquisition

Assessing Listening for Chinese English Learners Pan Zhixin, 2016-12-08 This book reports in detail the newly developed Communicative Listening Comprehension Test CLCT for the National College English Test CET of China Following the principles of communicative testing in general and test construction approach proposed by Bachman and Palmer 1996 in particular the project develops CLCT for CET 4 and CET 6 The research begins with the construction of frameworks of listening task characteristics and communicative listening ability Subsequently based on a survey of Chinese college students English listening needs and an analysis of listening tasks in influential English listening course books and public tests CLCT 4 and CLCT 6 test specifications are developed Finally sample papers are produced and a series of posteriori studies are conducted to examine the difficulty and usefulness of the newly developed notes completion task type in two CLCT tests As an example of successful integration of communicative testing theories and test construction practice this research provides valuable insights into listening test development for other large scale tests

Task-Based Instruction in

Foreign Language Education Betty Lou Leaver, Jane R. Willis, 2004-12-30 Task based language instruction has proven to be highly effective but surprisingly underutilized Theory can only go so far and hands on experience can greatly speed and enhance the learning of a second language Nineteen talented instructors who have successfully implemented task based programs explain the principles behind the programs discuss how problems were resolved and share details on class activities and program design Each chapter takes the reader through the different stages in designing and setting up such programs adjusting them and appraising and testing them in normal classroom conditions This book covers TBI syllabus and program design and is based on actual classroom experience Any one of the courses or programs discussed can serve as models for others Many of the contributors are highly respected practitioners who are presenting their programs for the first time while others are regular participants in today's ongoing dialogue about teaching methods Full of concrete adaptable models of task based language teaching drawn from a number of countries and eleven different languages including Arabic Chinese Czech English French German Korean Spanish and Ukrainian Task Based Instruction in Foreign Language Education presents proven real world practical courses and programs and includes web based activities It demonstrates useful and practical ways to engage students far beyond what can be learned from reading textbook dialogue TBI involves the student directly with the language being taught via cognitively engaging activities that reflect authentic and purposeful use of language resulting in language learning experiences that are pleasurable and effective For all instructors seeking to help their learners enhance their understanding and grasp of the foreign language they are learning Task Based Instruction in Foreign Language Education is a rich and rewarding hands on guide to effective and transformative learning

Individual Differences and Task-Based Language Teaching Shaofeng Li, 2024-06-06 This volume consists of a collection of empirical studies and research syntheses investigating the role of individual difference ID variables in task based language teaching TBLT a pedagogical approach that emphasizes the importance of the performance of meaning oriented tasks in facilitating second language learning TBLT is subject to learner external as well as learner internal factors with the former referring to task and context related factors and the latter to ID factors pertaining to learner traits dispositions or propensities To date the research has focused primarily on learner external factors and there has been insufficient and unsystematic research on individual difference factors This volume brings centre stage this important but under researched dimension by means of a comprehensive in depth examination of the role of key ID factors in TBLT The volume integrates theory research and pedagogy by spelling out the mechanism through which IDs influence learning attainment behaviours and processes examining evidence for theoretical claims and discussing ways to apply research findings and cater to individual differences in the task based classroom
