The Griffith Project, Volume 12 Paolo Cherchi Usai, 2019-07-25 THE GRIFFITH PROJECT Paolo Cherchi Usai General Editor Volume 12 Essays on D W Griffith Edited by Paolo Cherchi Usai and Cynthia Rowell With contributions by William M Drew Helmut F rber Andr Gaudreault Philippe Gauthier Lea Jacobs Joyce Jesionowski Charlie Keil Richard Koszarski Arthur Lennig Pat Loughney David Mayer Russell Merritt Jan Olsson Paul Spehr Yuri Tsivian Linda Williams In early 1996 an international group of 35 specialists in silent cinema volunteered to write commentaries on more than six hundred films directed written produced and supervised by D W Griffith or featuring him as a performer for the eleven volume series The Griffith Project the largest monograph ever assembled on an individual film director in conjunction with the massive retrospective held at the Pordenone Silent Film Festival from 1996 to 2008 All authors involved in The Griffith Project were bound to strict editorial rules most notably the fact that all titles in the series would be assigned to them in pre determined groups rather than as a result of their own individual preference for this or that specific entry The patience and commitment demonstrated by all scholars in this endeavor requires at least a symbolic recognition We therefore invited the members of the project team to write an essay on a D W Griffith related topic of their own choice The papers included in this volume constitute the response to our carte blanche invitation Our offer was also extended to other experts on D W Griffith who for various reasons were unable to participate in The Griffith Project but consistently supported it with their generous advice and insight This volume brings The Griffith Project to completion as 2008 sees the last installment of the D W Griffith program at the Pordenone Silent Film Festival with the screening of his films produced between 1925 and 1931 Not surprisingly twelve years of research on D W Griffith have unearthed an impressive wealth of knowledge but also an equally amazing array of new questions certainly enough of them to fill several more volumes Some of them including the increasingly complex issue of D W Griffith s role as production supervisor are only introduced or barely mentioned here but we are confident that what we have called the Griffith Project will continue at the Giornate and elsewhere with more research and newly found or preserved prints PAOLO CHERCHI USAI is Director of the National Film and Sound Archive of

Australia He is co founder of the Pordenone Silent Film Festival and of the L Jeffrey Selznick School of Film Preservation at George Eastman House Rochester New York He directed the experimental feature film Passio 2007 His latest book is David Wark Griffith Editrice Il Castoro 2008      Stagestruck Filmmaker David Mayer,2009-03 An actor a vaudevillian and a dramatist before he became a filmmaker D W Griffith used the resources of theatre to great purpose and to great ends In pioneering the quintessentially modern medium of film from the 1890s to the 1930s he drew from older more broadly appealing stage forms of melodrama comedy vaudeville and variety In Stagestruck Filmmaker David Mayer brings Griffith's process vividly to life offering detailed and valuable insights into the racial ethnic class and gender issues of these transitional decades Combining the raw materials of theatre circus minstrelsy and dance with the newer visual codes of motion pictures Griffith became the first acknowledged artist of American film Birth of a Nation in particular demonstrates the degree to which he was influenced by the racist justifications and distorting interpretations of the Civil War and the Reconstruction era Moving through the major phases of Griffith's career in chapters organized around key films or groups of films Mayer provides a mesmerizing account of the American stage and cinema in the final years of the nineteenth century and the first three decades of the twentieth century Griffith's relationship to the theatre was intricate complex and enduring Long recognized as the dominant creative figure of American motion pictures throughout twenty six years of making more than five hundred films he pillaged adapted reshaped revitalized preserved and extolled By historicizing his representations of race ethnicity and otherness Mayer places Griffith within an overall template of American life in the years when film rivaled and then surpassed the theatre in popularity      Race in American Film Daniel Bernardi,Michael Green,2017-07-07 This expansive three volume set investigates racial representation in film providing an authoritative cross section of the most racially significant films actors directors and movements in American cinematic history Hollywood has always reflected current American cultural norms and ideas As such film provides a window into attitudes about race and ethnicity over the last century This comprehensive set provides information on hundreds of films chosen based on scholarly consensus of their importance regarding the subject examining aspects of race and ethnicity in American film through the historical context themes and people involved This three volume set highlights the most important films and artists of the era identifying films actors or characterizations that were considered racist were tremendously popular or hugely influential attempted to be progressive or some combination thereof Readers will not only learn basic information about each subject but also be able to contextualize it culturally historically and in terms of its reception to understand what average moviegoers thought about the subject at the time of its popularity and grasp how the subject is perceived now through the lens of history      American Cinema 1890-1909 Andre Gaudreault,2009-01-13 At the turn of the twentieth century cinema was quickly establishing itself as a legitimate form of popular entertainment The essays in American Cinema 1890 1909 explore and define how the making of motion pictures flowered into an industry that would finally become the central entertainment institution of the world

Beginning with all the early types of pictures that moved this volume tells the story of the invention and consolidation of the various processes that gave rise to what we now call cinema By examining the battles over patents production exhibition and the reception of film readers learn how going to the movies became a social tradition in American society In the course of these two decades cinema succeeded both in establishing itself among other entertainment and instructional media and in updating various forms of spectacle

The Griffith Project, Volume 10 Paolo Cherchi Usai,2019-07-25 No other silent film director has been so extensively studied as D W Griffith However only a small group of his more than five hundred films had been the subject of a systematic analysis Now for the first time in film studies the complete creative output of Griffith from Professional Jealousy 1907 to The Struggle 1931 is explored in this multi volume collection of contributions from an international team of leading scholars in the field Created as a companion to the ongoing retrospective held by the Pordenone Silent Film Festival The Griffith Project is now an indispensable guide to his work This is the final volume of the project

Borderland Films Dominique Brégent-Heald,2015-11 The concept of North American borderlands in the cultural imagination fluctuated greatly during the Progressive Era as it was affected by similarly changing concepts of identity and geopolitical issues influenced by the Mexican Revolution and the First World War Such shifts became especially evident in films set along the Mexican and Canadian borders as filmmakers explored how these changes simultaneously represented and influenced views of society at large Borderland Films examines the intersection of North American borderlands and culture as portrayed through early twentieth century cinema Drawing on hundreds of films Dominique Br gent Heald investigates the significance of national borders the ever changing concepts of race gender and enforced boundaries the racialized ideas of criminality that painted the borderlands as unsafe and in need of control and the wars that showed how international conflict significantly influenced the United States relations with its immediate neighbors Borderland Films provides a fresh perspective on American cinematic cultural and political history and on how cinema contributed to the establishment of societal narratives in the early twentieth century

Dickens and the Dream of Cinema Grahame Smith,2003-11-08 Taking his cue from Walter Benjamin s concept of each epoch dreaming the epoch that is to follow Grahame Smith argues that Dickens novels can be regarded as proto filmic in the detail of their language as well as their larger formal structures This possibility arises from Dickens creative engagement with the city as metropolis as it emerges in the London of the 1830s plus his immersion in the visual entertainments of his day such as the panorama as well as technological advances such as the railway which anticipates cinema in some of its major features The book offers a new way of reading Dickens through the perspective of a form which he knew nothing of while simultaneously suggesting an account of his part in the manifold forces that led to the appearance of film towards the end of the 19th century

Specters of Slapstick and Silent Film Comediennes Maggie Hennefeld,2018-03-27 Women explode out of chimneys and melt when sprayed with soda water Feminist activists play practical jokes to lobby for voting rights while overworked kitchen maids dismember their limbs to finish their chores on time In early slapstick films with titles such as Saucy Sue Mary Jane s Mishap Jane on Strike and The Consequences of Feminism comediennes exhibit the tensions between joyful laughter and gendered violence Slapstick comedy often celebrates the exaggeration of make believe injury Unlike male clowns however these comic actresses use slapstick antics as forms of feminist protest They spontaneously combust while doing housework disappear and reappear when sexually assaulted or transform into men by eating magic seeds and their absurd metamorphoses evoke the real life predicaments of female identity in a changing modern world Specters of Slapstick and Silent Film Comediennes reveals the gender politics of comedy and the comedic potentials of feminism through close consideration of hundreds of silent films As Maggie Hennefeld argues comedienne catastrophes provide disturbing but suggestive images for comprehending gendered social upheavals in the early twentieth century At the same time slapstick comediennes were crucial to the emergence of film language Women s flexible physicality offered filmmakers blank slates for experimenting with the visual and social potentials of cinema Specters of Slapstick and Silent Film Comediennes poses major challenges to the foundations of our ideas about slapstick comedy and film history showing how this combustible genre blows open age old debates about laughter society and gender politics
