Growing Up America Susan Eckelmann Berghel, Sara

Fieldston, Paul M. Renfro, 2019-12-15 Growing Up America brings together new scholarship that considers the role of children and teenagers in shaping American political life during the decades following the Second World War. Growing Up America places young people and their representations at the center of key political trends illuminating the dynamic and complex roles played by youth in the midcentury rights revolutions in constructing and challenging cultural norms and in navigating the vicissitudes of American foreign policy and diplomatic relations. The authors featured here reveal how young people have served as both political actors and subjects from the early Cold War through the late twentieth century. Age of Fracture At the same time Growing Up America contends that the politics of childhood and youth extends far beyond organized activism and the ballot box. By unveiling how science fairs, breakfast nooks, Boy Scout meetings, home economics classrooms, and correspondence functioned as political spaces, this anthology encourages a reassessment of the scope and nature of modern politics itself.

Growing Up and Growing Old in Ancient Rome Mary Harlow, Ray Laurence, 2002 Throughout history every culture has had its own ideas on what growing up and growing old means. This volume highlights the role of age in determining behaviour across the life span of an inhabitant of ancient Rome.

Growing Up Jim Crow Jennifer Lynn Ritterhouse, 2006 Sheds new light on the racial etiquette of the South after the Civil War, examining what factors contributed to the unwritten rules of individual behavior for both white and black children. Simultaneous Boyhood, Growing Up Male Franklin Abbott, 1998 By turns touching, funny, poignant, and painful, BOYHOOD chronicles the road to manhood through the personal narratives and poems of accomplished writers from around the world. Though some of these more than 40 personal accounts convey the exquisite angst of the men's movement, the broad range of experiences should strike many chords.

Today's Southern children get their biscuits as often from Hardee's as from Mama. On Saturday afternoons they're as likely to cool off in the local shopping mall as in a shady spring-fed swimming hole. But Grandma and Grandpa and Uncle Joe and Aunt Elaine loom large in the lives of today's Southern kids just as they did in those of earlier generations. The hard work many children still do isn't likely to be acknowledged by their elders colored and white labels are less blatant but they still constrict the futures of this generation s
