The Growth of the Church in Buganda John Vernon Taylor,2017-10-28 Excerpt from The Growth of the Church in Buganda An Attempt at Understanding I am deeply grateful to the many Africans who gave generously of their time and hospitality to help me towards understanding To select only a few names would be invidious but I cannot forbear to mention one Brusoni Wandera who for four months put himself unreservedly at my disposal and offered me an unstinting friendship Dr A I Richards then of the East African Institute of Social Research and now at Newnham College Cambridge gave me the benefit of her wide experience and later read through my manuscript and made a number of stimulating suggestions Dr Lloyd A F allers who was then the head of the East African Institute of Social Research gave both guidance and encouragement and Mr Anthony Low of Makerere College shared most generously his expert knowledge of the history of Uganda I am indebted to Mr John Goldthorpe also of Makerere College for permitting me to be present at a number of student seminars My thanks are specially due to the Bishop of Uganda the Rt Rev Leslie Brown and to the Diocesan Council for their invitation to the International Missionary Council to conduct the study in the first instance and for the welcome and encouragement they extended to me personally Miss Ferrier the librarian and Miss Belcher the archivist at the headquarters of the Church Missionary Society responded to my request for help with a readiness and patience which gave an added pleasure to that part of the work I particularly wish to thank Mr H B Thomas for his most valuable help He read through my first draft correcting and polishing with meticulous care and finally offered to see my manuscript through the press in my own absence from Great Britain For such unsolicited kindness from one who has already filled his retirement with more activity than most younger men would care to undertake there are no words that can adequately express my gratitude About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Growth of the Church in Buganda J. V. Taylor, 1958 The Church in the World David Zac Niringiye, 2016-04-30 Historically studies of the church in Africa have tended to focus on church history or church state relations but in this publication David Zac Niringiye presents a study of the Church of Uganda focused on its ecclesiology Niringiye examines several formative periods for the Church of Uganda during concurrent chronological political eras characterized by varying degrees of socio political turbulence highlighting how the social context impacted the church's self expression The author's methodology and insight sets this work apart as an excellent reflection on the Ugandan church and brings scholarly attention to previously ignored topics that hold great value to society the church and the academic community globally

The Church Mission Society Brian Stanley, Kevin Ward, 2019-07-12 The Church Missionary Society now renamed the Church Mission Society has been for most of its 200 year history the largest and most influential of the British Protestant missionary agencies Its bicentenary in 1999 is being marked by the publication of this collection of historical and theological essays by an international team of scholars including Lamin Sanneh Kenneth Cragg and Geoffrey A Oddie The volume contains re assessments of the classic centenary history of the CMS by Eugene Stock and of the strategic vision of Henry Venn one of the two architects of the Three Self theory of the indigenous church There are chapters on the close links between the CMS and the Basel Mission women missionaries and regional studies of Samuel Crowther and the Niger mission Iran the Middle East New Zealand India and Kikuyu Christianity The volume makes a major contribution to the growing body of literature on the indigenization of missionary traditions and will be of interest to historians of the missionary movement and non western Christianity as well as theologians concerned with religious pluralism dialogue and Christian mission

Buganda in Modern History Donald Anthony Low, 1971 A History of Christianity in Africa Elizabeth Isichei, 1995 Isichei's thorough study surveys the full breadth of Christianity in Africa from the early story of Egyptian Christianity to the churches of the Middle Years 1500 1800 to the prolific success of missions throughout the 1900s This important book fills a conspicuous void of scholarly works on Africa's Christian history. Includes 26 maps. The Contribution of the Christian Churches to the Development of Western Uganda 1894-1974 Deogratias M. Byabazaire, 1979. Christian Churches especially in the Third World are reconsidering and planning their responsibility in contemporary society. This has become necessary since some of the traditional ideas on the mission of the Church have become inadequate in modern and developing nations. The Churches are emphasizing that their task is mainly that of service to society. This service is to society as a whole and must have the betterment of this society as its goal. In fulfilling this purpose the Churches must therefore plan their strategy by first examining and evaluating the role they have played in the spiritual, social, economic and political progress. This study has been done in this light. Mapping Systematic Theology in Africa Ernst M. Conradie, Charl E. Fredericks, 2004-08-01. The emergence of an indigenous African theology especially since the 1960s is well documented. A wealth of literature has been published in the context of African theology especially over the last two or three decades. This indexed bibliography contains a number of publications in and for the African context specifically relevant to the fields of systematic theology and ethics. The Political Kingdom in Uganda David E. Apter, 2013-04-03. It is rare for a scholar to revisit the scene of earlier research with a view to evaluating how that research has stood up over time. Here David E. Apter does that and more. In a lengthy new introductory chapter to this classic study of bureaucratic nationalism he reviews the efficacy of the concepts in his original study of Uganda of almost a century ago including some such as consociationalism which have entered into the mainstream of comparative politics. Inside the Whirlwind Jason Alan Carter, 2016-12-09. How would ordinary African Christians interpret the figure and book of Job the quintessential biblical book on suffering from contexts of extreme poverty, tropical disease and rampant suffering? How do African Christians culturally understand issues of theodicy and the nature of evil? What role does the devil play in African Pentecostalism? How does the biblical lament empower faith and foster hope for people living with HIV/AIDS? In what way does a theology of eschatological hope inform the spirituality and prayers of ordinary African believers in the midst of suffering? Inside the Whirlwind offers insight on these fascinating questions. Based upon the perspectives of Fang Christians in Spanish-speaking Equatorial Guinea, Central Africa, the thematic and theological reflections on evil, suffering and hope emerging from sermons and Bible studies on the book of Job offer a remarkable window to view the main theological issues shaping grassroots African Christianity in the twenty-first century. Planting Churches Cross-Culturally David J. Hesselgrave, 2000-05-01. A practical approach to church planting that uses cultural and experiential data to facilitate the founding of new churches in unreached areas of the world. Hermeneutical Community C. S. Barefoot, 2024-12-23. Many Western initiatives exist for theological development in the majority world but how often do practitioners from the West pause to examine the role they should play in that endeavor? Missions history and church history have revealed inadequacies of imposing foreign theology on local churches yet the alternative of withdrawing from local theological development appears equally problematic If therefore the outsider s role is neither to impose theology nor withdraw from the task then what is his or her role Hermeneutical Community addresses this fundamental question and seeks to lay a sound missiological foundation for local theological development

Questioning Misfortune Susan Reynolds Whyte,1997 Some of the most interesting ethnographies of experience are concerned to highlight the indeterminate nature of life Questioning Misfortune is very much within this tradition Based on a long term study of adversity and its social causes in Bunyole eastern Uganda it considers the way in which people deal with uncertainties of life such as sickness suffering marital problems failure and death Divination may identify causes of misfortune ranging from ancestors and spirits to sorcerers Sufferers and their families will then try out a variety of remedial measures including pharmaceuticals sorcery antidotes and sacrifices But remedies often fail and doubt and uncertainty persist Even the commercialisation of biomedicine and the peril of AIDS can be understood in terms of a pragmatics of uncertainty

The Political Kingdom in Uganda David Ernest Apter,1997 It is rare for a scholar to revisit the scene of earlier research with a view to evaluating how that research has stood up over time Here David E Apter does that and more In a lengthy new introductory chapter to this classic study of bureaucratic nationalism he reviews the efficacy of the concepts in his original study of Uganda of almost a century ago including some such as consociationalism which have entered into the mainstream of comparative politics

The Mission of Apolo Kivebulaya Emma Wild-Wood,2020 A vivid portrayal of Kivebulaya s life that interrogates the role of indigenous agents as harbingers of change under colonization and the influence of emerging polities in the practice of Christian faiths

The Spiritual in the Secular Patrick Harries,David Maxwell,2012-07-20 David Livingstone s visit to Cambridge in 1857 was seen as much as a scientific event as a religious one But he was by no means alone among missionaries in integrating mission with science and other fields of research Rather many missionaries were remarkable pioneering polymaths This collection of essays explores the ways in which late nineteenth and twentieth century missionaries to Africa contributed to various academic disciplines such as linguistics ethnography social anthropology zoology medicine and many more This volume includes an introductory chapter by the editors and eleven chapters that analyze missionary research and its impact on knowledge about African contexts Several themes emerge including many missionaries positive views of indigenous discourses and the complicated relationship between missionaries and professional anthropologists Contributors John Cinnamon Erika Eichholzer Natasha Erlank Deborah Gaitskell Patrick Harries Walima T Kalusa John Manton David Maxwell John Stuart Dmitri van den Bersselaar Honor Vinck
