Clement, Christiane Erbolato-Ramsey, Annick Houzé, 2000-02-28 This reference organizes and describes the primary and secondary literature surrounding Mary Stevenson Cassatt Berthe Morisot Eva Gonzal's and Marie Bracquemond four major women Impressionist artists The Impressionist group included several women artists of considerable ability whose works and lives were largely ignored until the advent of feminist art criticism in the early 1970s They studied worked and exhibited with their male counterparts including Degas Manet Monet and Pissarro The entries provide extensive coverage of the careers critical reception exhibition history and growing reputations of these four female artists and discuss women Impressionists in general as they shared the challenges of becoming accepted as professional artists in late 19th century society Containing nearly 900 citations of manuscripts books articles reproductions films exhibitions and reviews this unique sourcebook will appeal to both art and women's studies scholars Each artist receives a biographical sketch chronology information about individual and group exhibitions and reviews and a primary and secondary bibliography which captures details about the artist's life career and relationship with other artists An art works index and names index complete the volume The Private Collection of Edgar Degas Ann Dumas, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1997 This volume investigates Degas dual role as both artist and collector Featuring works by well known artists like Delacroix Ingres Daumier Manet Cézanne Gauguin Van Gogh Cassatt and others this publication is the definitive text outlining Degas long career collecting important pieces by his predecessors as well as his contemporaries Metropolitan Museum of Art website Art Journal, 1960 American Watercolor in the Age of Homer and Sargent Kathleen A. Foster, Philadelphia Museum of Art, 2017-01-01 The fascinating story of the transformation of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 The formation of the American Watercolor Society in 1866 by a small dedicated group of painters transformed the perception of what had long been considered a marginal medium Artists of all ages styles and backgrounds took up watercolor in the 1870s inspiring younger generations of impressionists and modernists By the 1920s many would claim it as the American medium This engaging and comprehensive book tells the definitive story of the metamorphosis of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 identifying the artist constituencies and social forces that drove the new popularity of the medium The major artists of the movement Winslow Homer John Singer Sargent William Trost Richards Thomas Moran Thomas Eakins Charles Prendergast Childe Hassam Edward Hopper Charles Demuth and many others are represented with lavish color illustrations The result is a fresh and beautiful look at watercolor s central place in American art and culture Art Market Research Tom McNulty,2013-12-19 This book is for art market researchers at all levels A brief overview of the global art market and its major stakeholders precedes an analysis of the various sales venues auction commercial gallery etc Library research skills are reviewed and advanced methods are explored in a chapter devoted to basic market research Because the monetary value of artwork cannot be established without reference to the aesthetic qualities and art historical significance of our subject works two substantial chapters detail the processes involved in researching and documenting the fine and decorative arts respectively and provide annotated bibliographies Methods for assigning values for art objects are explored and sources of price data both in print and online are identified and described in detail In recent years art historical scholarship increasingly has addressed issues related to the history of art and its markets a chapter on resources for the historian of the art market offers a wide range of sources Finally provenance and art law are discussed with particular reference to their relevance to dealers collectors artists and other art market stakeholders Sales Parke-Bernet Galleries,1959-10 Alan Flattmann's French Quarter Impressions John R. Kemp,Alan Flattmann,2002-01-01 Alan Flattmann s French Quarter Impressions includes a foreword by E John Bullard the Montine McDaniel Freeman Director of the New Orleans Museum of Art as well as more than 120 color images portraying everything from the French Market to St Louis Cathedral The author provides an in depth look at Alan Flattmann s work artistic career and his interpretation of the world around him through art It also includes an introduction describing the French Quarter from the people and architecture to the unique mood as well as an historical essay on the famous New Orleans neighborhood Manet/Degas Stephan Wolohojian,Ashley E. Dunn,2023-09-18 Friends rivals and at times antagonists douard Manet and Edgar Degas maintained a pictorial dialogue throughout their lives as they both worked to define the painting of modern urban life Manet Degas the first book to consider their careers in parallel investigates how their objectives overlapped diverged and shaped each other s artistic choices Enlivened by archival correspondence and records of firsthand accounts essays by American and French scholars take a fresh look at the artists family relationships literary friendships and interconnected social and intellectual circles in Paris explore their complex depictions of race and class discuss their political views in the context of wars in France and the United States compare their artistic practices and examine how Degas built his personal collection of works by Manet after his friend s premature death An illustrated biographical chronology charts their intersecting lives and careers This lavishly illustrated in depth study offers an opportunity to reevaluate some of the most canonical French artworks of the nineteenth century including Manet's Olympia Degas's The Absinthe Drinker and other masterworks
