Education For Diversity Making Differences Monitoring Change In Education S:

Making a Difference in Education Robert Cassen, Sandra McNally, Anna Vignoles, 2015-04-24 What is working in education in the UK and what isn't This book offers a highly readable guide to what the latest research says about improving young people's outcomes in pre school primary and secondary education Never has this issue been more topical as the UK attempts to compete in the global economy against countries with increasingly educated and skilled work forces The book discusses whether education policy has really been guided by the evidence and explores why the failings of Britain's educational system have been so resistant to change as well as the success stories that have emerged Making a Difference in Education looks at schooling from early years to age 16 and entry into Further Education with a special focus on literacy numeracy and IT Reviewing a large body of research and paying particular attention to findings which are strong enough to guide policy the authors examine teacher performance school quality and accountability and the problematically large social gap that still exists in state school education today Each chapter concludes with a summary of key findings and key policy requirements As a comprehensive research review Making a Difference in Education should be essential reading for faculty and students in education and social policy and of great interest to teachers and indeed to anyone who wants to know about the effectiveness of UK education policy and practice and where they should be going

Diversity's Promise for Higher Education Daryl G. Smith, 2024-08-06

Building sustainable diversity in higher education isn't just the right thing to do it is an imperative for institutional excellence and for a pluralistic society that works In Diversity's Promise for Higher Education author Daryl G Smith proposes clear and realistic practices to help institutions identify diversity as a strategic imperative for excellence and pursue diversity efforts that are inclusive of the varied issues on campuses without losing focus on the critical unfinished business of the past To become more relevant while remaining true to their core missions colleges and universities must continue to frame diversity as central to institutional excellence Smith suggests that seeing diversity as an imperative for an institution's mission and not just as a value is the necessary lever for real institutional change Furthermore achieving excellence in a diverse society requires increasing institutional capacity for diversity working to understand how diversity is tied to better leadership positive change research in virtually every field student success accountability and more equitable hiring practices In this edition Smith emphasizes a transdisciplinary approach to the topic of diversity Drawing on fifty years of diversity studies this fourth edition engages with how the environment has transformed for diversity work since the third edition appeared in 2020 It addresses the changed landscape in which DEI work has been politicized both on and off campus provides examples and language to suggest ways to articulate the centrality of diversity to mission and excellence emphasizes the link between healthy democracies and higher education's mission in light of the current global and domestic challenges to democracy highlights the need to focus on the conditions for developing healthy communities where dialogue difference and learning can take place examines the current climate of campus protests and the implications for free speech and academic freedom and reemphasizes the complexity of identity and explains how to attend to the growing kinds of identities relevant to diversity equity and inclusion while not overshadowing the unfinished business of race class and gender
