Resources in Education , 1999-10 Research in Education , 1974 Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World Education and Racism National Education Association of the United States, Language and Antiracism José L. Magro, 2023-05-15 Beginning from the premise that being non racist and other neutral positions are inadequate in the face of a racist society and institutions this book provides language educators with practical tools to implement antiracist pedagogy in their classrooms It offers readers a solid theoretical grounding for its practical suggestions drawing on work in critical race theory critical sociolinguistics and language ideology to support its argument for antiracist pedagogy as a necessary form of direct action The author contends that antiracist pedagogy is a crucial part of the project of decolonizing universities which goes beyond tokenistic diversity initiatives and combats racism in institutions that have historically helped to perpetuate it The author's pedagogical suggestions are accompanied by online resources which will help the reader to adapt and develop the material in the book for their own classrooms

War on the American Republic Kevin Slack, 2024-10-15 Kevin Slack sounds the alarm on how America's failed neoliberal regime has given way to a woke oligarchy that has deployed a radical toolkit to rapidly strip away the rights of citizens Americans often use the words progressive liberal and radical more or less interchangeably without understanding their place in American history Kevin Slack describes the distinct aims of the movements they represent and weighs their consequences for the American republic Each of the three movements rejected older republican principles of governance in favor of an administrative state but there were substantial differences between Teddy Roosevelt's Anglo Protestant progressive social gospelers who battled trusts and curbed immigration Franklin Roosevelt's and Lyndon Johnson's secular liberals who forged a government business partnership and promoted a civil rights agenda and the 1960s radicals who protested corporate influence in the Great Society liberal hypocrisy on race and gender and the war in Vietnam Each sought to overturn what came before Following the revolution of the 1960s elites on both left and right turned against the industrial middle class to erect an oligarchy at home and advance globalization abroad Each side claimed to serve the interests of disadvantaged or underrepresented groups Radicals ensconced themselves in bureaucracy and academia to advance their vision of social justice for women and minorities while neoliberal elites promoted monopoly finance open borders and the outsourcing of jobs to benefit consumers The administrative state became a global American empire but the neoliberals' economic and military failures precipitated a crisis of legitimacy In the great awakening that began under Barack Obama neoliberal elites including establishment conservatives openly broke with the populist base of the Republican Party embraced identity politics and used COVID 19 and a myth of insurrection to strip away the rights of American citizens Today an incompetent kleptocracy is draining the wealthiest and most powerful people in history thus eroding the foundations of its own empire

How Real Is Race? Carol C. Mukhopadhyay, Rosemary Henze, Yolanda T. Moses, 2013-12-11 How real is race What is biological fact what is fiction and where does culture enter What do we mean by a colorblind or post-racial society or when we say that race is a social construction If race is an invention can we eliminate it This book now in its second edition employs an activity oriented approach to address these questions and engage readers in unraveling and rethinking the contradictory messages we so often hear about race The authors systematically cover the myth of race as biology and the reality of race as a cultural invention drawing on biocultural and cross cultural perspectives They then extend the discussion to hot button issues that arise in tandem with the concept of race such as educational inequalities slurs and racialized labels and interracial relationships In so doing they shed light on the intricate dynamic interplay among race culture and biology For an online supplement to How Real Is Race Second Edition click here Educational Leadership ,1943 Engaging Teachers in Anti-racist Pedagogy Julie Kailin,1996 Freedomways ,1977 Handbook of Latinos and Education Juan Sánchez Muñoz, Enrique G.
