Towards a History of Adult Education in America Harold W. Stubblefield,2018-12-07 Originally published in 1988 this book examines the work of the first generation adult education theorists and the traditions that their work helped establish They debated the issues aims and content of adult education programmes and began to explore the often difficult relationship between social expectations and the potential of education As well as providing an authoritative history during a period of rapid social change in America the book confirms that many of the preoccupations of the early thinkers have continued relevance today

Virtual Theology, Faith and Adult Education Ros Stuart-Buttle,2013-07-29 Online learning is a key feature of the contemporary educational landscape and has entered mainstream policy provision and practice But if online education is to reach mature development and evaluation it must be open to critical appraisal This book considers the implementation of online learning within adult theological education This can be an area of challenge or contention especially when established academic practices and cherished values are seen as threatened when handed over to online delivery This opens questions about theology pedagogy and online education Does online teaching and learning bring or demand a new or transformed disruptive pedagogy or does it result in maintenance or replication sustaining of traditional values and existing practices What might the opportunities and benefits be Who stands to gain Who stands to lose And what evidence is there to evaluate the quality of doing theology online This book examines a long standing programme of continuing professional development delivered fully online to adult practitioners working across Christian education and ministry settings It builds upon the author s international experience as an online educator for over a decade Key themes relate adult learning to theological pedagogy authority and online community The concept of interruptive pedagogy is presented as an interpretative model to critically appraise an approach to online education that draws on the best theological tradition yet also looks to the future

International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world

Adult Education - The Legislative and Policy Environment Sérgio Haddad, 2013-11-11 The studies contained in this volume present a sampling of policy and legislation relating to adult learning in various parts of the world They were produced in the context of a more complete survey under the auspices of the UNESCO Institute for Education UIE in cooperation with the University of Florence which sought to identify tendencies in this field over the past few years The international research project under which these of Paul national studies were made was developed under the direction Belanger Director of UIE and Paolo Federighi Professor at the University of Florence An international publication by the two project directors due to appear at the beginning of 1997 will report on the findings of the project which involves 26 countries The contributions presented here reflect a broad geographical spectrum as well as a wide range of policy models From an analysis of these studies it is apparent that this is a field in which there has been much innovation and which encompasses markedly varying approaches in response to different national conditions

Adult Education as Empowerment Pepka Boyadjieva, Petya Ilieva-Trichkova, 2021-03-19 Winner of the AAACE Cyril O Houle Award This book re imagines the essence and role of adult education at both the individual and societal levels It provides arguments for understanding adult education as a process of agency and empowerment which has not only instrumental but intrinsic and transformative roles to play This book brings together ideas from the capability approach with insights from recognition theory the embeddedness approach the political economic perspective for understanding public and private goods and the common goods perspective The analysis draws on data from large scale international studies alongside qualitative data and adopts a wide ranging European comparative perspective The book develops original instruments for measuring different dimensions of adult education as a common good and its realisation in different social contexts It is aimed at academics students practitioners and policy makers interested in adult and or higher education and the social justice perspective to human life

Adult Education and Difference, 2024-02-12 The world ecological system is marked by difference throughout There is social difference with different identities shifting and transmuting being forged and extra human differences All these have implications for intra human and human non human earth relations This aspect is not always recognised and valorised Education though not an independent variable still can be mobilised together with other sources of potential transformation to redress this situation marked by aggressions micro and macro inertia and indifference It represents a number of immediate challenges for Adult Education This compendium is intended as a useful resource in this regard It maps out a kaleidoscope of myriad differences and suggests options for overcoming the various obstacles that stand opposed to those who seek fulfilment in the way they are discursively located The obstacles are a dent on efforts to living in communion with the rest of the cosmos The utopian view is that of different species living in harmony with each other This book emphasises social ecological justice intersectionality and relationality as the targets for Adult Education in this relatively still new millennium Contributors are Sharifah Salmah Binti Abdullah Thi Bogossian Lauren Bouttell Lidianne Nunes de Castro Anyela Nathalie Gomez Deantonio Preeti Dagar Raquel Galeano Gimenez Ksenija Joksimovi Kainat Khurshid Robert Livingston Peter Mayo Sonia Medel Yunah Park Zainab Sa id Sa ad Bonnie Slade Gameli Kodzo Tordzro Agnieszka Uflewski and Aisara Yessenova

Adult Education: As Social Policy Colin Griffin, 2022-02-26 First published in 1987 Adult Education As Social Policy intends to provide an introduction to the social policy analysis of adult education contributing to the larger literature around lifelong or continuing education The roots of policy in alternative social welfare models are traced to their ideological sources and to the origins of adult education theory itself The development of professionalism is also considered in relation to policy analysis and there is a case study of major policy documents to illustrate the analysis The book will be of
