Practicing Christian Education Mark A. Maddix, James Riley Jr. Estep, 2017-07-18 This accessible introduction to the broad scope of Christian education focuses on its practice in the local church Two leading experts argue that Christian education encompasses all of the intentional practices of the local church including worship mission sacraments and teaching They explore Christian education not only as a field of study but as a vital congregational ministry showing how congregations can engage in discipleship and formation for spiritual growth The book features exercises and other pedagogical devices and includes reflection questions and suggestions for further reading

The Educational Ministry of a Church J. Jonathon Kim, Charles A. Tidwell, 2020

Christian Education Freddy Cardoza, 2019-11-05 This introductory textbook solidly situates Christian education in the church and ministry context of the 21st century With over 20 years of ministry teaching and leadership experience Freddy Cardoza is uniquely qualified to bring together a wide range of Christian educators This volume features the expertise of 25 evangelical scholars of Christian education including diverse next generation voices in the field It provides balanced biblical theological and practical perspectives for church and parachurch leaders equipping them to meet the ever changing needs of our world Additional resources for professors and students are available through Textbook eSources

Planning for Christian Education Formation Israel Galindo, Marty Canaday, 2010-03-01 This book was written to help congregational leaders clergy staff and laypersons plan and organize a Christian education ministry from the approach of Christian formation in a community of faith context This book provides a model for organizing the Christian education leadership committee or team of the church demonstrates how to use the church year as a framework for planning the Christian education ministry of the church and gives a model for assessing the effectiveness of the educational ministry of the church and a process to help congregations move toward the Christian Education Formation approach

Teaching the Faith, Forming the Faithful Gary A. Parrett, S. Steve Kang, 2009-10-16 With the decline of traditional Sunday school and education programs in recent years many Christians have not learned the fundamental doctrinal content of the faith In this text Gary Parrett and Steve Kang set forth a thoroughly biblical vision for intentional teaching of the Christian faith that attends to both the content and process of educational and formational ministries

The Church As Learning Community Norma Cook Everist, 2010-10-01 Norma Cook Everist contends that it is meaningful to say that in ministries of administration outreach and pastoral care the church is functioning as a learning community Whenever and wherever Christians are being formed into the image of Jesus Christ through ministry there Christian education is taking place Christian education is the name we give to that process of formation Building on this central insight Everist has written a major new introduction to the tasks and practices of Christian education Part 1 of the book focuses broadly on what it means to be the church in the world Part 2 shows how being a learning community requires ongoing growth in faith throughout the span of life Part 3 shifts focus to the church as it moves into the community and world
