For Life Abundant Dorothy C. Bass, Craig Dykstra, 2008-04-29 Bass and Dykstra have written extensively and collaboratively on Christian Practices arguing that the what Christians have done faithfully over time constitutes a life giving way of life and that this living of Christianity is more primary to what it means to be Christian than doctrinal confession that our confessions spring from faithful living rather than the other way around This book contains numerous essays that take up the question of Christian Practices and ministry the preparation of ministers theological education etc in a post Enlightenment understanding of the relationship of practice and head knowledge Because the book is the result of a community conversation it doesn t have a clear thesis but it models its conviction that reflection on theology arises from community conversation around our life in discipleship together An extremely helpful beginning to a conversation about ministry practices of faith clergy preparation etc as the time has come to integrate the kind of learning that comes in the classroom with the kind that only comes from living the faith with others Amazon com

Sustainability, Human Well-Being, and the Future of Education Justin W. Cook, 2018-09-17

This open access book explores the key dimensions of a future education system designed to enable individuals schools and communities to achieve the twin twenty first century challenges of sustainability and human well being For much of the twentieth century Western education systems prepared students to enter the workforce contribute to society and succeed in relatively predictable contexts Today people are at the controls of the planet making decisions that are dramatically reshaping social economic and environmental systems at a global scale What is education s purpose in this new reality What and how must we learn now The volatility and uncertainty caused by digitalization globalization and climate change weave a common backdrop through each chapter Using case studies drawn from Finland and the US chapter authors explore various aspects of learning and education system design through the lenses of sustainability and human well being to evaluate how our understanding and practice of education must transform Using their scholarly research and experience as practitioners the authors propose new approaches to preparing learners for a new frontier of the human experience fraught with risks but full of opportunity
