Education For Development In Asia:

Education for Development in Asia Jandhyala B. G. Tilak,1994 Education in South-East Asia Colin Brock,Lorraine Pe Symaco,2011-05-09 This book on education in South East Asia is the very first of its kind to comprehensively cover and discuss the education systems and issues in all the countries in the region the ten member nations of the Association of South East Asian nations ASEAN plus Timor Leste The eleven chapters on country case studies are written by education country experts and give the readers an overview of each country s education system while also highlighting issues currently significant to each system There are also thematic chapters on selected issues reckoned to be significant in the region such as gender education and development higher education language policy quality assurance and sustainable development This book is a significant contribution to academic literature in this field in that the South East Asian region is in general one of the leading zones of the developing world containing within it advancing economies such as Brunei and Malaysia and a key global hub Singapore Even the poorer countries are showing signs of significant advance The region also contains the most populous Islamic country in the world Indonesia and examples of the educational legacies of a variety of forms of European and American colonialism The book is therefore a source of reference to better understand education in a region where diverse religious political and cultural aspects are found and interrelate in a form of serious co operation
