to construct new narratives that represent a plurality of lived experiences histories and identities which aim to nurture support for more progressive ethically informed ways of seeing and to actively inform contemporary public debates on often contested rights related issues At the same time it would be misleading to suggest an even and uncontested transition from the museum as an organisation that has been widely understood to marginalise exclude and oppress to one which is wholly inclusive Moreover there are signs that momentum towards making museums more inclusive and equitable is slowing down or in some contexts reversing Museums Equality and Social Justice aims to reflect on and crucially to inform debates in museum research policy and practice at this critical time It brings together new research from academics and practitioners and insights from artists activists and commentators to explore the ways in which museums galleries and heritage organisations are engaging with the fast changing equalities terrain and the shifting politics of identity at global national and local levels and to investigate their potential to contribute to more equitable fair and just societies Picturing the Self Gen Doy,2004-09-24 Ideas of selfhood from Descartes theory of I think therefore I am to postmodern notions of the fragmented and de centred self have been crucial to the visual arts Gen Doy explores this relationship from Holbein s Ambassadors and the early modern period up to and beyond Marc Quinn s Self Blood Head Arguing that the importance of subjectivity for art goes far beyond self portraits she explores such topics as self expression the self work and consumption self presentation photography and the theatre of the self the marginalized beggars and asylum seekers and the real me A wide range of artists including Tracey Emin Jeff Wall Eugene Palmer and Karen Knorr are discussed as well as historical material from earlier periods Death, Memory and Material Culture Elizabeth Hallam,Jenny Hockey,2020-05-26 How do the living maintain ongoing relationships with the dead in Western societies How have the residual belongings of the dead been used to evoke memories Why has the body and its material environment remained so important in memory making Objects images practices and places remind us of the deaths of others and of our own mortality At the time of death embodied persons disappear from view their relationships with others come under threat and their influence may cease Emotionally socially politically much is at stake at the time of death In this context memories and memory making can be highly charged and often provide the dead with a social presence amongst the living Memories of the dead are a bulwark against the terror of forgetting as well as an inescapable outcome of a life s ending Objects in attics gardens museums streets and cemeteries can tell us much about the processes of remembering This unusual and absorbing book develops perspectives in anthropology and cultural history to reveal the importance of material objects in experiences of grief mourning and memorializing Far from being invisible the authors show how past generations dead friends and lovers remain manifest through well worn garments letters photographs flowers residual drops of perfume funerary sculpture Tracing the rituals gestures and materials that have been used to shape and preserve memories of personal loss Hallam and Hockey show how material culture provides the deceased with a powerful presence within the here and now Photomontage (Second) (World of Art) Dawn

Ades, 2021-10-05 A fully updated new edition of this classic in depth study of the pioneering art form of photomontage by renowned art historian Dawn Ades Manipulation of the photograph is as old as photography itself It has embodied and enlivened political propaganda satire and commercial art and helped visualize the brave new world of the future through surreal and fantastic images Photomontage has been embraced by artists from the late nineteenth century to today including the Dadaists John Heartfield El Lissitzky Hannah Hoch and Alexander Rodchenko In this updated classic art historian Dawn Ades addresses the aesthetic social and historical implications of the varied manifestations and uses of manipulated photographs Revered by artists critics and readers alike this new edition is brought up to date to reflect technological developments and changes in visual culture discussing the work of contemporary artists Kathy Bruce Linder Cold War Steve and others Photomontage also includes refreshed image reproductions as well as new full color illustrations Exhibition Experiments Sharon Macdonald, Paul Basu, 2008-04-30 Exhibition Experiments is a lively collection that considers experiments with museological form that challenge our understanding of and experience with museums Explores examples of museum experimentalism in light of cutting edge museum theory Draws on a range of global and topical examples including museum experimentation exhibitionary forms the fate of conventional notions of object and representation and the impact of these changes Brings together an international group of art historians anthropologists and sociologists to question traditional disciplinary boundaries Considers the impact of technology on the museum space tackles a range of examples of experimentalism from many different countries including Australia Austria Germany Israel Luxembourg Sweden the UK and the US Examines the changes and challenging new possibilities facing museum studies Black Milk Marcus Wood, 2013-05-09 Black Milk is the first in depth analysis of the visual arts that effloresced around slavery in Brazil and North America in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Exploring prints photographs paintings sculptures ceramics and ephemera it will change everything we knew or thought we knew about the visual archive of Atlantic slavery Venus in Exile Wendy Steiner, 2002-11-15 In Venus in Exile renowned cultural critic Wendy Steiner explores the twentieth century's troubled relationship with beauty Disdained by avant garde artists feminists and activists beauty and its major symbols of art the female subject and ornament became modernist taboos To this day it is hard to champion beauty in art without sounding aesthetically or politically retrograde Steiner argues instead that the experience of beauty is a form of communication a subject object interchange in which finding someone or something beautiful is at the same time recognizing beauty in oneself This idea has led artists and writers such as Marlene Dumas Christopher Bram and Cindy Sherman to focus on the long ignored figure of the model who function in art as both a subject and an object Steiner concludes Venus in Exile on a decidedly optimistic note demonstrating that beauty has created a new and intensely pleasurable direction for contemporary artistic practice X-radiography of Textiles, Dress and Related Objects Sonia A. O'Connor, Mary M. Brooks, 2007 X radiography of textile objects reveals hidden features as well as unexpected components and materials This book looks at the techniques used in X raying textiles showing how digitisation and digital image manipulation can yield maximum information about the subject

Drapery Gen Doy,2001-12-21 Gen Doy investigates the hitherto neglected meanings of drapery and the draped body in visual culture The baroque and the classical are her subjects as are Freud s Gravida Clerambault s writings and photographs of draped figures the fetishistic play between veiling and revealing and the meanings of drapery in recent art from Christo s wrapped Reichstag to the impact of the modern women s movement on fine art practice Yet she also finds and focuses on the draped body now in places like Algeria and Kosovo where drapery s connotations are no longer those of purity and civilized elegance but of barbarism poverty and savage death

Writing Design Grace Lees-Maffei,2013-09-12 How do we learn about the objects that surround us As well as gathering sensory information by viewing and using objects we also learn about objects through the written and spoken word from shop labels to friends recommendations and from magazines to patents But even as design commentators have become increasingly preoccupied with issues of mediation the intersection of design and language remains under explored Writing Design provides a unique examination of what is at stake when we convert the material properties of designed goods into verbal or textual description Issues discussed include the role of text in informing design consumption designing with and through language and the challenges and opportunities raised by design without language Bringing together a wide range of scholars and practitioners Writing Design reveals the difficulties ethics and politics of writing about design

Austen's Unbecoming Conjunctions J. Heydt-Stevenson,2016-04-30 Austen sUnbecomingConjunctions is a contemporary study of all Jane Austen s writings focusing on her representation of women sexuality the material objects and linguistic patterns by which this sexuality was expressed Heydt Stevenson demonstrates the subtle vulgar and humorous ways Austen uses human bodies objects and activities fashion jewelry crafts popular literature travel and tourism money and courtship rituals to convey sexuality and sexual appetites Through the sexual subtext Heydt Stevenson proposes Austen satirized contemporary sexual hypocrisy overcame the stereotypes of women authors as sexually inhibited sheltered or repressed and addressed as sophisticated and worldly an audience as Byron s Thus through her careful reading of all the Austen texts in light of the language of eroticism both traditional and contemporary Heydt Stevenson re evaluates Austen s audience the novels and her role as a writer

Exotic No More Jeremy MacClancy,2019-09-23 In this new edition of the anthropological classic Exotic No More some of today s most respected anthropologists demonstrate the tremendous contributions that anthropological theory and ethnographic methods can make to the study of contemporary society With chapters covering a wide variety of subjects the economy religion the sciences gender and sexuality human rights music and art tourism migration and the internet this volume shows how anthropologists grapple with a world that is in constant and accelerating transformation Each contributor uses examples from their adventurous fieldwork to challenge us to rethink some of our most firmly held notions This fully updated edition reflects the best that anthropology has to offer in the twenty first century The result is both an invaluable introduction to the field for students and a landmark achievement that will set the agenda for critical approaches to the study of contemporary life Contributors Ruben Andersson Philippe Bourgois Catherine Buerger James G Carrier Marcus Colchester James Fairhead Kim Fortun Mike Fortun Katy Gardner Faye Ginsburg Roberto J Gonz lez Tom Griffiths Chris Hann Susan Harding Faye V Harrison Laurie Kain Hart Richard Jenkins George Karandinos Christopher M Kelty Melissa Leach Margaret Lock Jeremy MacClancy Sally Engle Merry Fernando Montero Matt Sakakeeny Anthony Alan Shelton Christopher B Steiner Richard Ashby Wilson

Surrealism and the Exotic Louise Tythacott, 2003-09-02 Surrealism and the Exotic is the story of the obsessive relationship between surrealist and non western culture Describing the travels across Africa Oceania Mexico and the Caribbean made by wealthy aesthetes it combines an insight into the mentality of early twentieth century collectors with an overview of the artistic heritage at stake in these adventures Featuring more than 70 photographs of artefacts exhibitions and expeditions in progress it brings to life the climate of hedonism enjoyed by Breton Ernst Durkheim and Mauss It is an unparalleled introduction to the Surrealist movement and to French thought and culture in the 1920s and 1930s
