Fictions In Autobiography:

Fictions in Autobiography Paul John Eakin, 2014-07-14 Investigating autobiographical writing of Mary McCarthy Henry James Jean Paul Sartre Saul Friedlander and Maxine Hong Kingston this book argues that autobiographical truth is not a fixed but an evolving content in a process of self creation Further Paul John Eakin contends the self at the center of all autobiography is necessarily fictive Professor Eakin shows that the autobiographical impulse is simply a special form of reflexive consciousness from a developmental viewpoint the autobiographical act is a mode of self invention always practiced first in living and only eventually and occasionally in writing Originally published in 1985 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Passing and the Fictions of Identity Elaine K. Ginsberg, 1996-04-29 Passing refers to the process whereby a person of one race gender nationality or sexual orientation adopts the guise of another Historically this has often involved black slaves passing as white in order to gain their freedom More generally it has served as a way for women and people of color to access male or white privilege In their examination of this practice of crossing boundaries the contributors to this volume offer a unique perspective for studying the construction and meaning of personal and cultural identities These essays consider a wide range of texts and moments from colonial times to the present that raise significant questions about the political motivations inherent in the origins and maintenance of identity categories and boundaries Through discussions of such literary works as Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom The Autobiography of an Ex Coloured Man Uncle Tom's Cabin The Hidden Hand Black Like Me and Giovanni's Room the authors examine issues of power and privilege and ways in which passing might challenge the often rigid structures of identity politics Their interrogation of the semiotics of behavior dress language and the body itself contributes significantly to an understanding of national racial gender and sexual identity in American literature and culture Contextualizing and building on the theoretical work of such scholars as Judith Butler Diana Fuss Marjorie Garber and Henry Louis Gates Jr Passing and the Fictions of Identity will be of value to students and scholars working in the areas of race gender and identity theory as well as U S history and literature Contributors Martha Cutter Katharine Nicholson Ings Samira Kawash Adrian Piper Valerie Rohy Marion Rust Julia Stern Gayle Wald Ellen M Weinauer Elizabeth Young

Factual Fictions Leonora Flis, 2010-08-11 Factual Fictions Narrative Truth and the Contemporary American Documentary Novel focuses on contemporary American documentary narratives specifically the documentary novel as it re emerged in the 1960s and later developed into various other forms The book explores the connections between the documentary novel and the concurrent rise of New Journalism a k a literary journalism in the United States situating the two genres in the cultural context of the tumultuous 1960s and an emerging postmodern ethos Flis makes a comprehensive analysis of texts by Truman Capote Norman Mailer John Berendt and Don DeLillo while tackling discussions on various theoretical complexities with assurance and rigor Interested in the precarious divide between fact and fiction the author productively complicates traditional notions of the two poles Furthermore the book examines parallels between contemporary Slovene documentary narratives and their American counterparts Flis's work with its systematic and innovative approach to the subject matter adds an important historical dimension to the developing field of literary journalism studies as well as to the more established area of 20th Century American literature Passionate Fictions

Marta Peixoto, 1994 Passionate Fictions was first published in 1994 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Clarice Lispector is the premiere Latin American woman prose writer of this century Suzanne Ruta noted in the New York Times Book Review but because she is a woman and a Brazilian she has remained virtually unknown in the United States Passionate Fictions provides American readers with a critical introduction to this remarkable writer and offers those who already know Lispector's fiction a deeper understanding of its complex workings The Identifying Fictions of Toni Morrison J. Duvall, 2000-12-14 Although all published biographical information on Toni Morrison agrees that her birth name was Chloe Anthony Wofford John Duvall's book challenges this claim Using new biographical information he explores the issue of names and naming in Morrison's fiction and repeatedly finds surprising traces of the Nobel Prize winning author's struggle to construct a useable identity as an African American woman novelist Whatever the exact circumstances surrounding her decision to become Toni one thing becomes clear the question of identity was not a given for Morrison authorship and dissidence it integrates his writing across several genres providing a rounded assessment of his contribution to cultural debates in Spain since the sixties and arguing that resistance to repressive discourses characterizes his essays and autobiographies as much as his fiction Second it revises the prevailing critical interpretation of Goytisolo's fiction by building on four premises that his novels are less clearly oppositional than prevailing interpretations imply that in order to engage with discourses of identity he employs an idiom which contrary to his own statements is not a poststructuralist autonomous world of words that a textual practice grounded in the recognizable experience of post Civil War Spain rather than one which seeks out the realm of pure textuality is essential to Goytisolo's subversive political intentions and that the autobiographical element of much of his work constitutes a more complex narrative aesthetic than has been appreciated The book argues that if Goytisolo's work is interpreted as an ethical engagement with postmodernist theory rather than as an illustration of it then certain contradictions for which he has been criticized are seen in a new and valuable light ALISON RIBEIRO DE MENEZES is a Senior Lecturer in Spanish at University College Dublin Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress.
