The Book of Knowledge Arthur Mee, 1912 Never Alone Sayif M. Sanyika, 2016-07-20 One of the things I learned on this thousand mile walk is I am only vulnerable when I hide and I hide when I feel threatened not up to the challenge or I am ashamed about something Also I realized as humans most of us are always host to at least one if not all three conditions that invest heavily in our sense of guilt shame and fear These conditions exist greatly because of the ill will that we have projected and invested in the image of our own creation not understanding the power we put into such an investment nor do many of us have the spiritual understanding of the spoken and unspoken word and its internal and external power over our thought processes as well as our behavior On the other hand I believe with positivism one can disinvest in all one's negativity One cannot do harm to one's neighbor without doing harm to one's own character self esteem emotional and mental stability one's own sense of self is diminished Let us step out of fear and free the heart free the heart and step into the power of one's eternal self and you are once again walking in humanity in spirit reflecting the loving image of Spirit not the confusion we have placed upon such a concept
