

The book cover features a large, expressive illustration. On the right, a grey elephant is depicted in a dynamic, almost dancing pose, with its trunk raised and its body angled towards the left. The elephant's skin is rendered with bold, dark grey and black strokes, giving it a textured, almost abstract appearance. Its head is turned back, looking towards its trunk. The background is a solid, vibrant red. A large, white, torn-paper-like shape is positioned on the left side, partially overlapping the red background. The title 'Fidèles éléphants' is written in a black, sans-serif font within this white shape. The authors' names, 'YUKIO TSUCHIYA' and 'BRUCE ROBERTS', are written in a smaller, black, sans-serif font below the title. At the bottom center, the publisher's logo 'Les 4 coups' is visible, with the number '4' being particularly large and stylized. The overall style is graphic and artistic, with a strong emphasis on color and form.
