The Magnificent Migration Sy Montgomery,2019 Follows a safari team led by Dr Richard Estes as they track one of the largest land migrations wildebeests crossing the Serengeti with information on other animal migrations and the importance of protecting the African savanna ecosystem The Swahili World Stephanie Wynne-Jones,Adria LaViolette,2017-10-16 The Swahili World presents the fascinating story of a major world civilization exploring the archaeology history linguistics and anthropology of the Indian Ocean coast of Africa It covers a 1 500 year sweep of history from the first settlement of the coast to the complex urban tradition found there today Swahili towns contain monumental palaces tombs and mosques set among more humble houses they were home to fishers farmers traders and specialists of many kinds The towns have been Muslim since perhaps the eighth century CE participating in international networks connecting people around the Indian Ocean rim and beyond Successive colonial regimes have helped shape modern Swahili society which has incorporated such influences into the region's long standing cosmopolitan tradition This is the first volume to explore the Swahili in chronological perspective Each chapter offers a unique wealth of detail on an aspect of the region's past written by the leading scholars on the subject The result is a book that allows both specialist and non specialist readers to explore the diversity of the Swahili tradition how Swahili society has changed over time as well as how our understandings of the region have shifted since Swahili studies first began Scholars of the African continent will find the most nuanced and detailed consideration of Swahili culture language and history ever produced For readers unfamiliar with the region or the people involved the chapters here provide an ideal introduction to a new and wonderful geography at the interface of Africa and the Indian Ocean world and among a people whose culture remains one of Africa's most distinctive achievements

African Ecological Ethics and Spirituality for Cosmic Flourishing Stan Chu Ilo, 2022-06-16 This is the definitive African text on ecological ethics African environmental spirituality a theology of creation and climate justice The contributors to this important volume explore the common threats facing this earth our common home and the particular threats facing Africa because of our sick environment unsustainable development practices and the false narratives and programs of modernity in the African Motherland Here African environmentalists theologians and peace advocates in conversation with Pope Francis's Laudato Si develop a roadmap for pastoral local and global education on ecological consciousness in order to bring about ecological conversion African ecological wisdom is also offered as indispensable resources for recovering the intimate connection of all creatures and all peoples and as a praxis of solidarity for the poor and our fragile earth

Quaternary Vegetation Dynamics Jürgen Runge, William Gosling, Anne-Marie Lézine, Louis Scott, 2021-11-28 This book celebrates the relaunch of the African Pollen Database presents state of the art of modern and ancient pollen data from sub Saharan Africa and promotes Open Access science Pollen grains are powerful tools for the study of past vegetation dynamics because they preserve well within sedimentary deposits and have a huge diversity in ornamentation that allows different taxa to be determined The reconstruction of past vegetation from the examination of ancient pollen records thus can be used to characterize the nature of past landscapes e.g. abundance of forests vs grasslands provide insights into changes in biodiversity and gain empirical evidence of vegetation response to climatic change and human activity In this the 35th Volume of Palaeoecology of Africa we bring together new data and extensive synthetic reviews to provide novel insights into the relationships between human evolution human activity climate change and vegetation dynamics during the Quaternary the last 2.6 million years Current and ongoing climate and land use change is exerting pressure on modern vegetation formations and threatening the livelihoods and wellbeing of many peoples in Africa In this book the focus is on the Quaternary because it is during this geological period that the modern vegetation formations developed into their current configurations against a backdrop of high magnitude global climate change glacial interglacial cycles human evolution and a growing human land use footprint In this book the latest information is presented and collated from around the African continent to parameterize past vegetation states identify the drivers of vegetation change and assess the vegetation resilience to change To achieve this research from two broad themes are covered i the present is the key to the past i e studies which improve our understanding of modern environments so that we can better interpret evidence from the past and ii the past is the key to the future i e studies which unlock information on how and why vegetation changed in the past so one can better anticipate trajectories of future change This Open Access book will provide a strong foundation for future research exploring past ecological environmental and climatic change within Africa and the surrounding islands The book is organized regionally covering western eastern central and southern Africa and it contains specialized articles focused on particular topics such as modern pollen vegetation relationships and fire as a driver of vegetation change as well as regional and pan African syntheses drawing together decades of research to assess key scientific questions including the role of climate in driving vegetation change and the role of vegetation change in human evolution These articles will be useful to students and teachers from high school to the highest level of university who are interested in the origins and dynamics of vegetation in Africa Furthermore it is also meant to provide societally relevant information that can act as an inspiration for the development of sustainable management practices for the future

Timbers 2 Lemmens, R.H.M.J., Louppe, D. & Oteng-Amoako, A.A., Culture and Media Rayson K. Alex, S. Susan Deborah, Sachindev P.S., 2014-06-19 Indian ecocriticism has not yet adequately demonstrated the applicability of ecological deep ecological tinai principles to visual texts Culture and Media Ecocritical Explorations closes this gap at the most opportune moment Though this volume accommodates ecologically oriented interpretations from several cultures across the world it reserves the centre stage for Indian ecocriticism and ecotheory quite appropriately The volume effectively challenges the major documents on ecocriticism and theory published by international presses which have been reluctant to give space to tinai criticism and theory that transcend Dravidian or Tamil boundaries The day is not far when cinema of the world shaped by tinai theory will employ tinai hermeneutics to gain fresh insight which in turn will feed into the processes of creation and production of relevant and great movies
