Counseling Interdisciplinary Issues and Research explores the latest conceptual and empirical research in the pursuit of effective education in counseling across a variety of disciplines. Field instruction and clinical supervision issues are addressed in social work, psychology, counseling and counselor education, nursing and school psychology. Core elements are examined including the development of the supervisor-supervisee working alliance and the parallel process in supervision. Supervision in Counseling Interdisciplinary Issues and Research takes you beyond the standard narrow view of clinical supervision within a particular discipline, broadly focusing on research and practices that have value in all disciplines. Research and developments on organizational matters, ethical issues, legal issues, evaluation, relationship issues, models of supervision and other developments are discussed in detail. The book includes helpful tables and figures and is extensively referenced.

Topics in Supervision in Counseling Interdisciplinary Issues and Research include major developments in clinical supervision over the years, a review of research literature in clinical supervision in counseling, the working relationship between supervisor and practitioner, challenges in remaining current in clinical supervision, overview of literature on supervision in psychology, clinical supervision as signature pedagogy for the mental health professions, clinical supervision in nursing inside and outside of the United States, research on field instruction in social work, much more.

Supervision in Counseling Interdisciplinary Issues and Research is an important resource for anyone in the field of clinical supervision in various disciplines such as social work, psychology, counseling and counselor education, nursing and school psychology.

Theological Reflection and Education for Ministry John E. Paver, 2006-01-01 On the integration of theory and practice, theology and experience in Christian ministry. Handbook of Applied Teaching and Learning in Social Work Management Education Maik Arnold, 2023-01-01 This up-to-date reference work explores theories, methods and practices of social work management education in higher education. It includes contributions from more than 30 scholars and researchers in the field of social work management education from more than 10 countries and 4 continents. The work is unique as it overcomes current barriers between the different sub-disciplines of social work, didactics and management education and takes into consideration the development of a discipline-specific Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL). The integrated and transdisciplinary approach to social work management education presented in this edited volume is of paramount importance to international scholars, teachers, practitioners, students and all other audiences interested in the field of education. The work provides an overview of the theoretical principles on how social work management can be taught and learned and analyzes curricula, pedagogical approaches, actors and socio-economic and institutional contexts of social work management at higher education institutions.
