Field Instruction:

Field Instruction Janet Wilson, 1986-02 In this book Suanna Wilson provides a comprehensive overview of student supervision written directly for agency administrators as well as school faculty involved in field instruction Based on her rich knowledge and extensive professional experience she offers specific guidelines and directions for successful field placement including interviewing and assigning students monitoring and assessing their performance analyzing and addressing the common needs and anxieties of both students and instructors and much more She also examines the characteristics of the accreditation process the role and responsibilities of the school and the agency and the legal aspects of field instruction itself In addition Appendices highlight typical problem situations encountered in student supervision and offer performance evaluation exercises group training exercises case examples and samples of documents useful in field instruction The Practice of Field Instruction in Social Work Marion Bogo, Elaine J. Vayda, 1998-01-01 This book is designed to guide social workers in their work as field instructors It is unique in that it presents a conceptual system that unites social work theory taught in the classroom to actual practice in a variety of community settings This system gives the field instructor a model to guide the student through a process that focuses attention on common elements of all social work practice situations Many examples are presented to illustrate the application of this process The Practice of Field Instruction in Social Work is an invaluable text for anyone preparing to become a field instructor for current field instructors and for faculty members responsible for field coordination The information presented here is based on current research and teaching experience The model presented in the book has been used with success in undergraduate and graduate programs throughout Canada and other countries Field Instruction: a Guide for Social Work Students DAVID.
