Emotional and Ethical Challenges for Field Research in Africa S. Thomson, A. Ansoms, J. Murison, 2012-11-13 Academic literature rarely gives an account of the ethical challenges and emotional pitfalls the researcher is confronted with before during and after being in the field Giving personal accounts the authors explore some of the challenges one can face when engaging in local level research in difficult situations

Storytracking Sam D. Gill, 1998 Storytracking is a work of theory and application It is both a study of history and culture and of the academic issues accompanying the interpretation and observation of other peoples Sam Gill writes about Central Australia but more importantly he writes about the business of trying to live responsibly and decisively in a postmodern world faced with irreconcilable diversity and complexity with undeniable ambiguity and uncertainty

Start with a Story Clyde Freeman Herreid, 2007 Kipp Herreid learned other ways to teach much better ways His favorite approach puts science in vivid context through case studies which he calls stories with an educational message This compilation of 40 plus essays examines every aspect of the case study method back cover

Field Research in Africa An Ansoms, Aymar Nyenyezi Bisoka, Susan Thomson, 2021 How do African scholars navigate the complexities of their own identities when researching in Africa or meet the challenges of being perceived as activists What is the impact of long term engagement in a particular region and local ties on research Researchers working in Africa are engaged in ethical methodological logistical emotional and professional compromises Juggling the demands of research with being human scholars must balance the recording of data with the emotional demands of listening of analysing and reporting personal and often contradictory narratives This book lays bare the process by which the researcher grapples with emotions and how feelings inform and shape data collection interpretation write up and dissemination Based on on the ground work from Central African Republic to Rwanda the DRC Algeria and South Africa the contributors to this book reveal the ambiguities and inconsistencies that emerge at all stages of fieldwork and provide guidance on how to tackle this Book jacket
