Fielding And The Nature Of The Novel:

Fielding and the Nature of the Novel Robert Alter, 1968 Eloquent Reticence Leona Toker, 2021-11-21 The importance of the ethics of form in literature has only recently gained broad recognition and has thus far been explored mainly from the position of moral philosophy and critical theory Leona Toker develops a narratological approach to the subject based on studying reticence in works of fiction Reticence consists in narrative techniques through which writers create information gaps that build interest enhance tension and control the reader's comprehension of theme character and event Using novels by Fielding Austen Dickens Conrad Forster and Faulkner Toker demonstrates how the withholding of information affects readers' attitudes stimulates their reassessment and leads to a self-critical reorientation and how such manipulation of attention has specific ethical and aesthetic significance Drawing on descriptive poetics reader response criticism and information theory Toker marks the parallel situations of the characters in the fiction she analyzes and of the readers who encounter it and presents a novel approach to the issue of first and repeated readings The inquiry into the twofold role of the reader opens the discussion of narrative techniques to ethical issues Through her analysis of silences in representative works Toker makes a meaningful contribution to modern narrative study and offers new insights into a number of familiar novels This well-informed sensitive and judicious study will appeal to scholars interested in narrative theory and ethical criticism and to students of Faulkner and of the classical English novel Scepticism Society And The Eighteenth-Century Novel Eve Tavor, 1986-12-15 The Sanctification of Don Quixote Eric Ziolkowski, 2008-01-18 Ziolkowski explores the religious implications of the figure of Don Quixote in Western literature from Cervantes to the present While scholars and critics in the past have often called attention to the secularizing tendency of modern literature to the numerous fictional adaptations of the Christ figure on the one hand and the innumerable literary descendants of Don Quixote on the other this study is the first to examine a lineage of characters in whom the images of the alleged savior and the mad knight are combined After considering Don Quixote as the first modern novel and taking into account its relationship to religion society and censorship in seventeenth-century Spain Ziolkowski traces the history and fate of Don Quixote the character through a series of religious transformations over the centuries focusing on three novels that adapt the Quixote figure Henry Fielding's Joseph Andrews Fyodor Dostoevsky's The Idiot and Graham Greene's Monsignor Quixote Ziolkowski argues that given the increased secularization and decline of religious consciousness over the last several centuries any pursuit of religious values or ideas becomes questionable and this appears quixotic insofar as it stands in contradiction to the sociohistorical context He concludes that religious existence for the few who pursue it in suffering which means that the religious person feels temporally displaced for adhering to a seemingly obsolete faith and lifestyle Henry Fielding's Novels and the Classical Tradition Nancy A. Mace, 1996 In this study author Nancy A. Mace rectifies the lack of scholarly attention given Henry Fielding's use of the classical tradition in his novels periodical essays and miscellaneous writings

Although scholars have extensively studied the affinities between Henry Fielding's novels and such modern genres as the romance travel literature and criminal biography they have paid surprisingly little attention to his use of the classical tradition in developing both his narrative theory and practice Between Sacred and Profane Christine van Boheemen-Saaf, 2021-11-08 Nature's Simple Plan Chauncey Brewster Tinker, 1922 A Topical Survey of English Literature , 'Critical Reflections in Literary Research': A Compendium of Research Papers Kamalakar Baburao Gaikwad, 2025-09-20 The title of this academic book is Critical Reflections in Literary Research It is mainly written for the research scholars teachers and literature readers It covers the topics which cultivate their interest and overall insights about the literary research The papers compiled in this book represent the fruitful and stimulating conversations Its main objective is to acquaint the readers about the pioneering fictional perceptions of the English literature This book is a timely collection of research papers on English literature that brings together a diverse assortment of scholarly contributions which explores complex intersections The most captivating characteristic of this book is its capacity to bridge seemingly incongruent disciplines Each research paper offers a fresh perspective a unique insight and its relationship with broader societal issues Each paper demonstrates the relevance and richness of literature as a field of academic enquiry These papers represent a unique exploration of how literature engages with societal issues such as association of law and literature cinema and literature third gender people and religion thematic significance of Raja Rao's Kanthapura and Annabhau Sathe's Fakira a brief review of Henry Fielding's works Bhavik Sarkhedi and Suhana Bhambhani's views on existential crisis Arun Joshi's perspectives on existentialism Aristotle's concept of tragedy caste discrimination and east west encounter in R K Narayan's fiction and a critical study of post modern Indian English Dramatists The book also comprises with the research papers which highlight on true happiness in Oscar Wilde's novels Dr Ambedkar's opinions on education ecclesiastical intuitions in Graham Greene significance of values and mannerism through J C Hill's work Narayana Murthy's need for excellence need of translation through Mahesh Elkunchwar's novel association of education and religion traits of protagonists pseudo zeal of worshippers racism womanism and marginalization of black women caste culture and politics reflected in dalit literature the role of recent trends in shaping modern Indian English literature quality of mercy blending of mock epic irony and fantasy and the portrayal of emancipated and new woman in Namita Gokhale's novel alienation in Toni Morrison and Alice Walker's novels Religious Pluralism in Swami Vivekananda's work mistaken legalistic validation in Joseph Heller's work and women images through Sylvia Plath's Mirror CliffsNotes on Fielding's Joseph Andrews Michael B. Mavor, 2001-03-07 Ordinarily a moralist writer in this novel Fielding creates a comedy of romance by superimposing the positive act of the imagination on the raw material of the real world It is ultimately both instructive and entertaining Here Fielding parodies his own previous novels in this story of a young man resisting the many attempts to seduce him An Ecological and Postcolonial Study of Literature R.
