Fieldworker And The Field Problems And Challenges In Sociological Investigation:

The Fieldworker and the Field Mysore Narasimhachar Srinivas, A. M. Shah, E. A. Ramaswamy, 1979 Articles

Anthropological Journeys Meenakshi Thapan, 1998 This collection of papers raises methodological issues and questions concerning the traditional nature of anthropology and addresses current issues and debates in sociology and social anthropology The essays in this volume by well known anthropologists take up these and other issues arising out of their own fieldwork experience The result is a rigorous and deeply moving analysis that leads to an unlearning of inappropriate and insensitive methods that obscure rather than explain the lives of people Ethical Issues in Anthropological Research Subir

Biswas, 2014-01-01 Anthropologists criticize some components of bioethics because of their abstract principles derived from arm chair philosophy and lack of cross cultural analysis and ethnocentric view for that they prepare a readymade ethical code of conduct which may differ significantly from culture to culture This volume aims to investigate such area of bioethics which may criticize in the light of anthropological fieldwork The work also finds some area of bioethics to study cultural construct of morality including cross cultural analysis keeping in mind cultural relativism in true sense The present work is an outcome of national seminar entitled Ethical Issues in Anthropological Research organized by Department of Anthropology West Bengal State University during 19 20 January 2012 Hope this work will be of interest not only to anthropologists or scholars of related field but also funding agencies and participant beneficiaries of the said field Handbook of Interview

Research Jaber F. Gubrium, James A. Holstein, 2002 The Handbook of Interview Research is the most ambitious attempt yet at examining the place of the interview in contemporary society Interviewing is the predominant mode of research in the social sciences It is also the stock in trade of information seekers in organizations and institutions of all kinds as well as in the mass media Across the board interviews provide today's leading window on the world of experience The Handbook offers a comprehensive examination of the interview at the cutting edge of information technology Drawing upon leading experts from a wide range of professional disciplines this book addresses conceptual and technical challenges that confront both academic researchers and interviewers with more applied goals From interview theory to the nuts and bolts of the interview process the coverage is impressively broad and authoritative The Handbook of Interview Research is both encyclopedic and thematic As an encyclopedia it provides extensive discussions of the methodological issues now surrounding interview practice offering a multi faceted assessment of what has become the method of choice for obtaining personal information in today's society But the Handbook also is a story which spins a particular tale of interviewing one that moves from the commonly recognized individual interview to what is called the interview society The gist of the presentation is that we can no longer regard the interview as simply an instrument for gathering data but must now also view it as an integral part of society The Handbook of Social Research Ethics Donna M. Mertens, Pauline E. Ginsberg, 2009 Brings together international scholars across the social and behavioural sciences and education to address those ethical issues that arise in the theory and practice of research within the technologically advancing and culturally complex world in which we live

Semionauts of Tradition Juliette Yu-Ming Lizeray, Chee-Hoo Lum, 2019-01-16 This book explores questions of identity cultural change and creativity from the perspective of contemporary musicians currently engaged in redefining Asian musical traditions and notions of heritage in Singapore Drawing on the fields of anthropology cultural studies and ethnomusicology Semionauts of Tradition focuses on emerging millennial musicians and explores the complex and interwoven cultural national musical and personal identifications in their discourse and music practice It shows how they create fluid hybrid and counter hegemonic forms of expression representation and identity through their navigation of diverse cultural worlds their incorporation of a myriad of elements into their own identities and music and their contestations of preconceived notions of difference and tradition The book exposes paradoxes within current thinking about multiracialism racial harmony the East West divide and tradition versus modernity and proposes new ways of understanding identity cultural change and creativity in a highly globalised and diverse nation This highly original polyvocal account of a burgeoning music scene includes photos musical scores and reaction pieces by musicians It is a timely contribution to global discussions about multiculturalism from below as well as musical cultural and national identities in a postcolonial Southeast Asian setting from the viewpoint of artists engaged in creative meaning making This captivating book explores with tremendous intellectual vitality the dialectic relationships between the cultural ethnic and national identities of Singapore's creative youth and their creative practice A compelling read Dr Liora Bresler Professor University of Illinois A well researched and thoughtfully well written book about the diverse forms of music in Singapore and the musicians who created it Jeremy Monteiro jazz pianist singer composer and music educator This wonderfully lucid and compelling book analyzes the musical and cultural creativity of young Singaporean musicians growing up in a multicultural and ethnically plural society bringing Asian and Western musical cultures into creative dialogue Dr Deborah Pacini Hernandez Professor Emeritus Tufts University A thought provoking dialogue on contemporary Singaporean music Eric Watson composer conductor music technologist and pedagogue

Fieldnotes Roger Sanjek, 2019-06-30 Thirteen distinguished anthropologists describe how they create and use the unique forms of writing they produce in the field They also discuss the fieldnotes of seminal figures Frank Cushing Franz Boas W H R Rivers Bronislaw Malinowski and Margaret Mead and analyze field writings in relation to other types of texts especially ethnographies Unique in conception this volume contributes importantly to current debates on writing texts and reflexivity in anthropology

Methodological Challenges and New Approaches to Research in International Development L. Camfield, 2014-05-29 Development researchers face many challenges in producing robust and persuasive analyses often within a short time frame This edited volume tackles these challenges head on using examples from other fields to provide practical guidance to research producers and users

In the Field Robert G. Burgess, An authoritative guide to the problems and procedures associated with data collection and analysis in field research

Field Research Robert G.

Burgess,2003-09-02 First Published in 1982 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Inside Interviewing James Holstein,Jaber F. Gubrium,2003-03-21 Inside Interviewing highlights the fluctuating and diverse moral worlds put into place during interview research when gender race culture and other subject positions are brought narratively to the foreground It explores the facts thoughts feelings and perspectives of respondents and how this impacts on the research process From the Female Eye M. N. Panini,1991 Feminist Dilemmas In Fieldwork Diane L. Wolf,2018-03-05 Fieldwork poses particular dilemmas and contradictions for feminists because of the power relations inherent in the process of gathering data and implicit in the process of representation Although most feminist scholars are committed to seeking ethical ways to analyze women and gender these dilemmas are especially acute in fieldwork where research often entails working with those who are in less privileged positions than the researcher Despite attempts by feminist scholars to conduct more interactive and egalitarian research they have rarely been able to disrupt the hierarchies of power This book offers an interdisciplinary exploration of the kinds of dilemmas feminist researchers have confronted in the field both in the United States and in Third World countries Through experientially based writings the authors unravel the contradictions stemming from their multiple positions as insiders outsiders or both and from attempts to equalize the research relationship and in some cases to ameliorate the situation of those studied The introductory essay includes an extensive review of the literature Global Gender Research Christine Bose,Minjeong Kim,2013-01-11 Readers of Global Gender Research will learn to compare and contrast feminist concerns globally gain familiarity with the breadth of gender research and understand the national contexts that produced it This volume provides an in depth comparative picture of the current state of feminist sociological gender and women s studies research in four regions of the world Africa Asia Latin America the Caribbean and Europe as represented by many countries The introductory essay to each region explains how social science research on women and or gender issues has been shaped by economics politics and culture and by trends that are simultaneously local regional and global It familiarizes readers with the wide range of salient issues research methods writing styles and leading authors from around the globe Each regional section includes several chapters on gender research in specific countries that represent the region s diversity and cover the major theoretical and empirical trends that have emerged over time as well as the relationship of key research questions to feminist activism and women s or gender studies Next the editors illustrate this new wave of gender scholarship with translated reprinted samples of research articles from additional countries in the region that cover a wide range of important global topics such as work sexuality masculinities childcare and family issues religion violence law and gender policies Finally this volume provides scholars with extensive bibliographies and a listing of web sites for women s and gender research centers in 85 countries Introduction to Sociology Brij Mohan,2022-06-28 This textbook explores the emergence of sociology as a distinct social science Focusing on the evolution of social theories movements and ideas through history it analyses the dynamic relationship between the individual and the larger social forces around them This volume examines the definitive aspects of societies communities and social groups and their intersections with culture political and economic movements and religious institutions It establishes the connections between sociology and other disciplines such as philosophy history political science economics psychology and anthropology to explore the interdependence between different realms of social life The chapters in this book explain and highlight the significance of quantitative and qualitative methods of research in understanding the dynamics of social life Drawing from the works of classical social theorists such as Auguste Comte Herbert Spencer Karl Marx Emile Durkheim and Max Weber this book traces the development of sociological perspectives and theories and their relevance in the history of ideas Lucid and comprehensive this textbook will be useful for undergraduate and postgraduate students of sociology development studies history of ideas sociological thought social theory research methods political science and anthropology

Case Study Methods Jacques Hamel, Stephane Dufour, Dominic Fortin, 1993-09-15 In this introduction to understanding researching and doing case studies in the social sciences Hamel outlines several differing traditions of case study research including the Chicago School of Sociology the anthropological case studies of Malinowski and the French La Play school tradition He shows how each developed changed and has been practiced over time Suggestions for the practice of case studies are made for the novice reader and an additional feature is the extensive bibliography on case study methods in social science to allow for further exploration of the topic

Third Survey of Research in Sociology and Social Anthropology M. S. Gore, 2000 Coverage for years 1980 1987 Doing Sociology of Education (RLE Edu L) Geoffrey Walford, 2012-05-16 This collection of specially commissioned articles exposes the practical and personal influences on the process of doing sociology of education All of the authors have been involved in conducting well know major research projects and discuss here the pitfalls and problems conflicts and compromises that went into doing their particular research A particular feature of the book is that a wide variety of types of research in the sociology of education is covered The range is from small scale ethnographic case studies to large scale postal questionnaire sample surveys and includes studies based on interviews observation and questionnaires There are examples of longitudinal work in case studies and in surveys The collection also includes discussions of action research the development and influence of theory and the relationship between research and policy
