Fierce Attachments:

Fierce Attachments Vivian Gornick, 1987 The story of the author's lifelong battle with her mother for independence
New York Magazine, 1987-11-30 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Truth in Nonfiction David Lazar, 2009-11-01 From Elie Wiesel to Benjamin Wilkomirski to David Sedaris the veracity of writers' claims has been suspect In this fascinating and timely collection of essays leading writers meditate on the subject of truth in literary nonfiction As David Lazar writes in his introduction How do we verify Do we care to Do we dare to eat the apple of knowledge and say it's true Or is it a peach Do we choose to Is it a subcategory of faith How do you respond when someone says This is really true Why do they choose to say it then A Desire for Women Suzanne Juhasz, 2003 Annotation An exploration of women's desire for women Mothers and Daughters Andrea O'Reilly, Sharon Abbey, 2000 In 1976 Adrienne Rich wrote in Of Woman Born Motherhood as Experience and Institution that Othe cathexis between mother and daughter_essential distorted misused_is the great unwritten story O In the quarter century since Rich wrote those words the topic of mothers and daughters has emerged as a salient issue in feminist scholarship Using women's writing film feminist theory and personal experience contributors to Mothers and Daughters explore how the mother daughter relationship is represented and experienced as a site of empowerment This volume will offer readers an important and welcome chapter in the story of the complex relationship that is a part of nearly every woman's life You're Wearing That? Deborah Tannen, 2006-01-24 Deborah Tannen's 1 New York Times bestseller You Just Don't Understand revolutionized communication between women and men Now in her most provocative and engaging book to date she takes on what is potentially the most fraught and passionate connection of women's lives the mother daughter relationship It was Tannen who first showed us that men and women speak different languages Mothers and daughters speak the same language but still often misunderstand each other as they struggle to find the right balance between closeness and independence Both mothers and daughters want to be seen for who they are but tend to see the other as falling short of who she should be Each overestimates the other's power and underestimates her own Why do daughters complain that their mothers always criticize while mothers feel hurt that their daughters shut them out Why do mothers and daughters critique each other on the Big Three hair clothes and weight while longing for approval and understanding And why do they scrutinize each other for reflections of themselves Deborah Tannen answers these and many other questions as she explains why a remark that would be harmless coming from anyone else can cause an explosion when it comes from your mother or your daughter She examines every aspect of this complex dynamic from the dark side that can shadow a woman throughout her life to the new technologies like e mail and instant messaging that are transforming mother daughter communication Most important she helps mothers and daughters understand each other the key to improving their relationship With groundbreaking insights pitch perfect dialogues and deeply moving memories of her own mother Tannen untangles the knots daughters and mothers can get tied up in Readers will appreciate Tannen s humor as they see themselves on every page and come away with real hope for breaking down barriers and opening new lines of communication Eye opening and heartfelt You re Wearing That illuminates and enriches one of the most important relationships in our lives Tannen analyzes and decodes scores of conversations between moms and daughters These exchanges are so real they can make you squirm as you relive the last fraught conversation you had with your own mother or daughter But Tannen doesn t just point out the pitfalls of the mother daughter relationship she also provides guidance for changing the conversations or the way that we feel about the conversations before they degenerate into what Tannen calls a mutually aggravating spiral a self perpetuating cycle of escalating responses that become provocations The San Francisco Chronicle Breaking Free Marilyn Sewell,2004-09-23 In twenty seven personal and daring essays some of our finest women writers examine the second half of their lives They grapple with what age and life have taught them contemplate their experiences and reflect on where they have arrived These are writers who get down and dirty who have looked at themselves as they are and at life as it is to discover not only what time has taken from them but also the powerful gifts that only come with age and experience Contributors include Isabel Allende Maya Angelou M F K Fisher China Galland Vivian Gornick Germaine Greer Erica Jong Audre Lorde Grace Paley Alix Kates Shulman Gloria Steinem and Terry Tempest Williams Lives Together/Worlds Apart Suzanna Danuta Walters,2023-11-15 In the 1940s film Now Voyager Bette Davis plays a daughter struggling against her mother s stifling repression Nearly fifty years later in the Hollywood saga Postcards from the Edge Shirley MacLaine as a neglectful and bossy mother inflicts untold psychological pain on her daughter played by Meryl Streep These dramas of conflict and the ambivalent struggle for separation have been central to popular images of mothers and daughters in the last half century in the U S Walters boldly challenges these dichotomies and proposes an innovative and multilayered understanding of the cultural construction of the mother daughter relationship In a discussion of popular media ranging from themes of maternal martyrdom to maternal malevolence Walters shows that since World War II mainstream culture has generally represented the mother daughter relationship as one of never ending conflict and thus promoted an ideology of separation as necessary to the daughter s emancipation and maturity This ideological move is placed in a social context of the anti woman backlash of the early post war period and the renewed anti feminism of the Reagan and Bush years Walters uses exceptions to mainstream imagery films such as A Tree Grows in Brooklyn television shows like Maude novels like The Joy Luck Club to offer evidence of alternative traditions and paradigms Timely and vividly argued Lives Together Worlds Apart makes a brilliant contribution to discussions of popular culture and feminism In the 1940s film Now Voyager Bette Davis plays a daughter struggling against her mother's stifling repression Nearly fifty years later in the Hollywood saga Postcards from the Edge Shirley MacLaine as a neglectful and bossy mother in Second Chance Ruth Rosengarten, 2022-08-23 In this intimate memoir Ruth Rosengarten explores the subject of evocative objects through a series of interconnected essays Evocative objects reflect our attitudes to our own lives and how we seek to display ourselves to ourselves They are therefore closely linked to our memories and how we filter process and reconstruct them Rosengarten explores the themes and associations invoked by her own evocative objects which are frequently shabby things of no material value They are importantly often objects that in their materiality bear traces of actions of something having been Through the associative pathways that these objects have paved she discusses her experiences with the losses she has undergone her family's migrations and what it means to be a childless woman This leads her to address the question of what will become of her storied objects and the memories attached to them when she is no longer in existence This memoir offers an interdisciplinary approach to collecting and compiling fragments of one's life paying close attention to the evocative objects that embody us In doing so these essays explore loss memory childlessness longing family history literature and art theory through material entities which reveal the immaterial things at the heart of this study This book is sure to be of interest to anyone stimulated by memory work and the relationship between humans and their possessions Super Gay Poems Stephanie Burt, 2025 Esteemed scholar poet and critic Stephanie Burt anthologizes five decades of verse for and by queer Americans Interpreted by Burt the poems of Frank O'Hara Audre Lorde Judy Grahn James Merrill Thom Gunn Jackie Kay Adrienne Rich Chen Chen The Cyborg Jillian Weise and others trace a flourishing of queer life from Stonewall to today The Fiction of Autobiography Micaela Maftai, 2013-07-04 Writing autobiography is a complicated often fraught activity for both writer and reader We can find many recent examples of the way such writing calls into question the author's truthfulness or their authority to present as definitive their version of a particular event or portion of their lives Drawing upon a wide range of late twentieth and early twenty-first century autobiographical writing The Fiction of Autobiography examines key aspects of autobiography from the interrelated perspectives of author reader critic and scholar to reconsider how we view this form of writing and its relationship to the way we understand and construct identity Maftai considers recent cases and texts such as Didion's The Year of Magical Thinking and Frey's A Million Little Pieces alongside older texts such as Proust's In Search of Lost Time Nabokov's Invitation of a Memory and Stein's *The Autobiography of Alice B.
