Fierce With Reality An Anthology Of Literature On Aging:

Fierce with Reality Margaret Cruikshank, 2016-12-01 The anthology is far more culturally diverse than the few other literary collections on aging Ranging from ancient Chinese poetry to Mary Oliver Alice Walker and Willie Nelson the anthology includes poetry fiction philosophical essays personal essays humor analyses of ageism and folktales from Asia and Iraq Fierce with Reality highlights writings by women from late 19th century American literature to the present Many facets of aging are explored revealing the challenges and complexities of late life and demonstrating that the aging process is both individual and social cultural Fierce with Reality aimed at a general audience as well as students and professors would be ideal for book groups Fierce with Reality Margaret Cruikshank, 2016-12 Fierce with Reality presents a diverse range of literature on aging that demonstrates the challenges complexities and pleasurable aspects of late life Many facets of aging are explored revealing the challenges and complexities of late life and demonstrating that the aging Learning to Be Old Margaret Cruikshank, 2009 In the second edition of Learning to Be Old Margaret Cruikshank examines the social construction of aging especially women s aging from a number of different angles medical economic cultural and political Featuring new research and analysis expanded sections on gay lesbian bisexual transgender aging and critical gerontology and an updated chapter on feminist gerontology the second edition even more thoroughly than the first looks at the variety of different forces affecting the progress of aging Through it all we learn a better way to inhabit our age whatever it is Final Acts Nan Bauer-Maglin, Donna Perry, 2009-12-07 Today most people die gradually from incremental illnesses rather than from the heart attacks or fast moving diseases that killed earlier generations Given this new reality the essays in Final Acts explore how we can make informed and caring end of life choices for ourselves and for those we love and what can happen without such planning Contributors include patients caretakers physicians journalists lawyers social workers educators hospital administrators academics psychologists and a poet and among them are ethicists religious believers and nonbelievers Some write moving personal accounts of good or bad deaths others examine the ethical social and political implications of slow dying Essays consider death from natural causes suicide and aid in dying assisted suicide Writing in a style free of technical jargon the contributors discuss documents that should be prepared health proxy do not resuscitate order living will power of attorney decision making over medical interventions life support hospice and palliative care aid in dying treatment location speaking for those who can no longer express their will and the roles played by religion custom family friends caretakers money the medical establishment and the government For those who yearn for some measure of control over death the essayists in Final Acts from very different backgrounds and with different personal and professional experiences around death and dying offer insight and hope Measuring the Quantum State of Light Ulf Leonhardt, 1997-07-13 Appendix A Semiclassical approximation Age Becomes Us Leni Marshall, 2015-06-30 In lively accessible prose this book expands the reach and depth of age studies A review of age studies methods in theory literature and practice leads readers to see how their own intersectional identities shape their beliefs about age aging and old age This study asks readers to interrogate the texts of menopause self help books on aging and foundational age studies works In addition to the study of these nonfiction texts the poetry and prose of Doris Lessing Lucille Clifton and Louise Erdrich serve as vehicles for exploring how age relations work including how they invoke readers into kinships of reciprocal care as othermothers otherdaughters and otherelders The literary chapters examine how gifted storytellers provide enactments portrayals and metaphorical uses of age to create transformative potential

Facing the Mirror Frida Furman, 2013-02-01 This innovative ethnographic study of a neighborhood beauty salon investigates how customers constitute a lively affirming community of peers during their weekly visits Facing the Mirror gives voice to older women who in a sexist and ageist society are frequently devalued and rendered invisible These older mostly Jewish women articulate their experiences of bodily self presentation femininity aging and caring pertaining to their lives within and outside Julie s International Salon This book explores the socio moral significance of these experiences which reveals as much about society as about older women themselves Women s narratives expose structures of power inequality and resistance in the ways women perceive reality make choices and live in their worlds

Out of the Closet, Into the Archives Amy L. Stone, Jaime Cantrell, 2015-11-20 The first book to focus on the experience of LGBT archival research Out of the Closet Into the Archives takes readers inside the experience of how it feels to do queer archival research and queer research in the archive The archive much like the closet exposes various levels of public and privateness recognition awareness refusal impulse disclosure framing silence cultural intelligibility each mediated and determined through subjective insider outsider ways of knowing The contributors draw on their experiences conducting research in disciplines such as sociology African American studies English communications performance studies anthropology and women s and gender studies These essays challenge scholars to engage with their affective experience of being in the archive illuminating how the space of the archive requires a different kind of deeply personal embodied research

The Top Books of the Year Fierce With Reality An Anthology Of Literature On Aging The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Fierce With Reality An Anthology Of Literature On Aging : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Fierce With Reality An Anthology Of Literature On Aging : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
